MEDIATORS REACH CRISIS; CARRANZA DELEGATE BARRED

Final Reply to Constitutionalist Leader Who Would Not Declare an Armistice, Prevents His Men Taking Any Part in Negotiations.

HUERTA'S SUCCESSOR IS DIVIDING POINT

Huerta Denies He Has Employed Former Senator Towne to Represent Him—Appeal for Terrazas.

By Associated Press.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 16.—There was little expectation of agreement between the Mexican and American delegates, over the organization of a new provisional government in Mexico and the selection of a successor to Gen. Huerta, but the delegates continued consideration of the available material in the hope that some person acceptable might be suggested.

Emilio Rabasa, chairman of the Mexican delegation, received a telegram today in which Gen. Huerta denies he is being represented in any way at Washington by Charles A. Towne, former United States Senator from Minnesota.

The transfer of Louis Terrazas, wealthy Mexican land owner, from the Palace at Chihuahua, where he had been under confinement for many months, to the penitentiary, was responsible, it was learned today, for the request by Ambassador de Gama of Brazil last night to Secretary Bryan through the American delegates, to obtain his release. The information as to the plight of Terrazas was communicated to the Ambassador by Senator Ransom, who asked that the United States use its influence in his behalf.

Washington Has Little Hope of Successful Outcome.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Temporary suspension of formal conferences at Niagara Falls among the mediators and the American and Huerta delegates during the absence of the Argentine Minister left affairs at a crisis today.

President Wilson and Secretary Bryan today will have additional time for consideration of men to be suggested for the provisional presidency of Mexico. Government officials were said to have experienced some difficulty in getting names of eligibles through Constitutional agents in Washington.

During the three days' absence of Minister Naon, who has gone to Yale and Harvard to accept degrees, the President and his advisers hoped to make headway over the problem of personalty of men to be suggested for the provisional presidency of Mexico.

Chances that Carranza might become a party to the present proceedings apparently were dissipated by the dispatch of the envoys' latest telegram to the Constitutional chief. They told Carranza they feared he "had not duly considered" their communication containing a request for an armistice with Huerta. Men in the confidence of the President declared he had "duly considered" the proposal, that he would not agree to a truce and that apparently the door for any further correspondence between the mediators and the revolutionist leader was closed.

They contended that under the circumstances there was nothing left for Carranza to say. He would not now send any representative to Niagara Falls, they declared, even in an unofficial capacity.

U. S. to Look After Carranza's Interest.

That development, not entirely unexpected, caused little change in the diplomatic situation so far as the United States was concerned. However, in some quarters, it was suggested that the closing of the door to the Constitutional delegates might hinder the Washington Government's chances of obtaining Carranza's consent to the drafting of a peace plan in which he would have had no part. On the other hand, the insistence of the American delegates that a Constitutional or a man with Constitutional sympathies be named for provisional President, was pointed to as showing that the interests of the Northern faction were receiving full consideration. The mediators have declared they were carefully weighing the Constitutional claims.

Agents of the revolutionist junta here were surprised that the mediators replied direct to Carranza instead of transmitting their telegram to Rafael Zubaran, through whom all previous correspondence has passed. They declined to comment upon it, but a statement today from Carranza was expected.

Men in close touch with the Constitutional agent declared that the ill-fortune Carranza's troops have encountered in the investment of Zacatecas speedily would be reversed by the arrival of reinforcements hurrying from the north. They discredited Federal reports that Gen. Natera, in command, continued on page 2, column 2.

SIX MILES OF POLICE GUARD KING FROM SUFFRAGETTES

Route From Castle to Racecourse Lined by Policemen, and Triple Rails Prevent Persons From Getting to Royal Box.

LONDON, June 16.—Never before have such precautions been taken to guard members of the royal family from the suffragettes as were taken today at the Ascot racecourse. The opening of the leading society race meeting found more than 1000 London policemen and hundreds of detectives from Scotland Yard assembled for the regular Berkshire County police force, which had been mobilized in full strength.

The six-mile route from Windsor Castle to the course was lined all the way by policemen.

The militancy, despite the Queen's threat to cancel the rest of the season's social engagements, showed themselves more determined than ever to obtain publicity for their cause by attacking the King.

The arrangements for guarding the entrance to the royal enclosure on the racecourse were more stringent in every way. Every applicant for a ticket had to be vouched for by some responsible official.

The track was closely guarded and there were triple rails to prevent any unauthorized persons from reaching it. For several days past, throughout the day and night, men accompanied by watch dogs have patrolled the course and alarm guns have been placed in position around the stands and lawns.

LEAPS FROM AUTO WHEN TRAPPED IN GRADE CROSSING

Edward H. Rabenberg Saves His Life at Ellendale; Machine Is Smashed.

Edward H. Rabenberg, of 715 South Main, vice president of the St. Louis Roofing Co., and former member of the House of Representatives from the Twenty-fourth Ward, narrowly escaped death at 4 a. m. Tuesday, when his automobile was crushed by an inbound Missouri Pacific passenger train as he was driving over the tracks at Ellendale Station, between Benton and Maplewood.

Rabenberg was on his way to a registration place north of the tracks on Manchester road. He told a policeman afterwards that the gates at the crossing were up, and that no signal of warning was sounded or displayed. As he drove on the tracks, he saw the train approaching so swiftly that he knew he would be unable to clear the tracks.

Rabenberg jumped over the hood of the auto, scrambling to safety just as the car was grazed by the locomotive. John Leahy, 715 Old Manchester road, gatekeeper at the crossing, said he failed to get the gates lowered in time to prevent Rabenberg from getting on to the tracks. When the gates fell, Rabenberg was shut in, directly in the path of the train. The crash came a moment after Rabenberg leaped from his car, he said the impact hurling the machine against the north gate, breaking it down.

Rabenberg, as a member of the House Public Improvements Committee at the last session, made a fight to protect this particular grade crossing among others, and once succeeded in getting Police Captain O'Brien, then in charge of the Mounted District, to station a patrolman there at night.

Rabenberg said he asked the flagman in charge Tuesday why he failed to lower the gates at the approach of the Kirkwood train, and the watchman replied: "I thought you could make it."

That development, not entirely unexpected, caused little change in the diplomatic situation so far as the United States was concerned. However, in some quarters, it was suggested that the closing of the door to the Constitutional delegates might hinder the Washington Government's chances of obtaining Carranza's consent to the drafting of a peace plan in which he would have had no part. MAN IS KILLED BY FALL OF 150 FEET OFF QUARRY LEDGE

Worker Pushing Truck Plunges With It When It Strikes Rock on Track.

HE IS CRUSHED BY CAR

Branina Vartolo Meets Death in Spectacular Accident at Bambrick Pit.

Branina Vartolo, 38 years old, of 1230 North Ninth street, was killed in a spectacular way at 5:30 a. m. Tuesday, when a truck he was pushing on a track struck a rock and plunged off into the pit of Bambrick's quarry, 150 feet below the ledge on which it had been.

Vartolo, holding to the truck, was carried along with it.

The truck had been loaded with stones. These fell off as the truck, with its human burden desperately clinging to it, tried to hold it back, toppled into the pit. Vartolo landed first, and the truck, falling on top of him, crushed him. The impact demolished the truck.

Four workers saw Man Fall. Four men, holding rock on the ledge on which Vartolo had been working, said they saw him carried over into the pit. They hurried to the edge of the ledge and saw only the splintered truck at the bottom of the pit. Later they found Vartolo's crushed body under the debris.

Vartolo's duty was pushing the truck along the tracks on the ledge while rocks were hoisted upon it. The track runs diagonally along the ledge, its eastern terminus being 10 feet from the edge of the ledge and its western terminus only two feet from the edge.

Vartolo was near the western terminus when the truck hit the rock and carried him to his death. The truck was about 8 feet long and 4 feet wide.

Ledge 50 Feet Down. Thirty-five other workmen were on various ledges in the quarry, but none of them saw Vartolo fall. The ledge on which Vartolo was working is 50 feet below the surface.

Bambrick's quarry is at 525 St. Louis avenue. Vartolo was married and had been employed there about six months.

NEW MEXICO MAN SEEKS MARKET FOR REPTILES IN ST. LOUIS.

Eugene Smith, secretary of the Merchants' Exchange, was surprised when he opened his mail Tuesday to find an inquiry from G. H. Marshall of Acme, N. M., as to whether there is a market in St. Louis for rattlesnakes. The letter said: "Could you refer me to a market in your town where I can dispose of some nice little rattlesnakes? I was told there was a market in your city and I would be a thousand times obliged to you if you can give me any reference to such a firm or buyer."

Smith showed the letter to Arthur Petri, Billie Rooker, Oswald Graves, Bert Lang and other "pit traders," but they knew of no market. If anyone knows of a market for some nice little rattlesnakes, for actual or future delivery, he will oblige Secretary Smith by informing him.

GEN. ROSALIE JONES DARES WATSON TO DEBATE HERE

Noted Suffragist, Touring Missouri for the "Cause," Speaks Before Courthouse.

WEARS FAMOUS CAPE

Leader in Women's Eastern Marches Advocates Publicity in the State Campaign.

"General" Rosalie Jones, suffragette, five feet tall and attractive, spent Monday night in St. Louis, and made two speeches for equal suffrage—one at the courthouse and the other at a "political banquet" given by the St. Louis Equal Suffrage League at the Mission Inn, Grand and Magnolia avenues.

Miss Jones won the title "General" by leading two groups of New York women in the cause of equal suffrage—one on a walk to Albany and the other to Washington. She is touring Missouri in behalf of the cause.

When she alighted from a train at the Washington avenue station about 8 o. c., she was dressed in black, owing to the recent death of her father. She wore the same "Pilgrim cape" over her shoulders which she wore on her marches. She was alone and carried only a suit case.

"O, what looks like old times," she said, when Mrs. David O'Neill and Mrs. Alice Curtis Moyer of the local league escorted her to a big auto covered with equal suffrage banners.

Speaks at the Courthouse. Accompanied by two other women containing the reception committee, she was whisked to the courthouse. A crowd of about 250 men and women grouped about the machine, attracted by the banner. Mrs. Moyer introduced Miss Jones to them. Standing in the auto, with her Pilgrim cape about her, she spoke to the crowd.

Her speech was made from a practical standpoint. "We only ask for votes that we may safeguard ourselves," she said. "We women pay taxes—why shouldn't we have a say-so as to how that tax money is to be spent?"

"Statistics show that only a little over 10 per cent of the criminals are women. Why shouldn't women have a hand in making the laws which they obey so well?"

Hundred at Banquet Table. She spoke for 15 minutes. Once, when a man handed a cup of water to her, as her voice grew husky, she said, "I'm certainly glad you gave me cold water instead of throwing it on me."

She invited the women to several men in the crowd asked them. These were answered, each with a witty turn.

On the way to the Mission Inn her auto stopped a few minutes at Grand and Olive streets. "General" Jones started to make an address there, but as she had no permit, the traffic policeman said he would not advise it, and so the journey was continued.

More than a hundred persons sat at the banquet table in the inn grove. Owing to threatened rain, Mrs. George Gellhorn, toastmistress, had the speeches made during the progress of the dinner. Mayor Kiel won applause by stating that he had taken orders from women before and expected to in the future. He contributed $5 of the $50 raised during the evening by Mrs. B. Morrison-Fuller, State vice-president, for the suffrage campaign.

Publicity the Big Need. "General" Jones spoke from the center of the hollow square formed by the tables.

"What we need in our cause is publicity," she said. "For, no matter how great the cause, it will die for the lack of publicity. To make a success in Missouri each one of you present must convert 10 others to the cause. These converted ones will help continue the work."

When she had spoken for 15 minutes and was about to stop, the audience called, "Go on, go on!"

"Don't you know better than to tell a woman to keep on talking?" she asked. Then she told of her two marching trips.

"We made people think on those trips," she said. "Why, you would be surprised to know of the curiosity which was aroused. On those trips people would come from 10 miles around, and after speaking to us, touch our Pilgrim capes for luck."

After her address Joseph Wright, member of the Progressive party, will Ham Marion Reedy, Lee Meriwether and others spoke.

During a slight intermission "Gen. Jones was told by a reporter of the attack upon the cause which Henry Waterson, the Louisville editor, had made in New York.

"Really, do you know I think that Col. Waterson should dress in knee breeches and wear nice fluffy laces and such," she said. "He belongs to the class when they were such things. I think such attire would be quite appropriate in his case. As for the Colonel's attacks on suffrage, he is doing us a great good."

Challenge to Waterson. When told that Waterson had said that women by their suffrage cravings had broken up peace in the only place where a man could find it, the home, "Gen. Jones" bright eyes flashed.

BUSINESS STOPS IN BLOOMINGTON FOR STEVENSON BURIAL

Governor and Other Notable Democrats at Ex-Vice-President's Funeral.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., June 16.—With business suspended and the city in mourning, Bloomington this afternoon paid final honors to former Vice-President Adlai E. Stevenson. The body lay in state in the rotunda of the courthouse for two hours, while thousands filed past.

The procession to the church was headed by a band, a troop of Illinois National Guard and surviving members of the Stevenson Escort Club, a famous marching organization of the campaign of 1892, which accompanied the Vice-President-elect to the inauguration at Washington. There followed 300 miners from the McLean County mine, of which Stevenson was for many years president, members of the Bar Association, the Mayor and city officials, and numerous local organizations.

The Second Presbyterian Church, the largest in the city, held only a fraction of those assembled. The services were conducted by the Rev. J. N. Elliott and the Rev. Edgar D. Jones of Bloomington, and the Rev. Martin D. Hardin of Chicago, a son-in-law of Stevenson. The interment at the Bloomington Cemetery was private.

The list of honorary pallbearers included many men prominent in law, politics and business, headed by James S. Ewing, formerly Ambassador to Belgium, and long Stevenson's law partner; former Gov. Joseph W. Pifer, Congressman Fitzhugh and former Congressman Sterling.

Among the notable persons present were former Vice President Fairbanks, former Gov. Francis of Missouri, Gov. and Mrs. Dunne, Secretary of State Woods, Auditor Brady, State Treasurer Ryan and Attorney-General and Mrs. Lucy. The members of the State Board of Pardons, of which Stevenson's son, Lewis G. Stevenson, is president, and the Iroquois Club of Chicago were represented.

BRIDGE ARBITRARY IS ABOLISHED FOR 4 DAYS

Those Who Make $5 Round Trip to Chicago Will Escape It June 19-22

St. Louisans will have the rare opportunity of not having to pay the bridge arbitrary of 25 cents on the trip to Chicago next Friday. A blanket charge of $5 a round trip beginning on that date has been made by the railroads, in a rate competition.

This low rate was put into effect for a few days last fall. It is put on this year to stimulate traffic in the dull season.

Chicagoans will enjoy the same reduction on a trip to St. Louis.

30,000 PERSONS ARE EXPECTED TO REGISTER TODAY

Polls in Voting Precincts Will Be Open Until 10 O'Clock Tonight to Permit Voters to Qualify for Charter and Primary Elections.

EXPERTS TOUR POLLS TO DIRECT CLERKS

Voter Must Register to Cast Ballot if He Has Moved, or Recently Become Enfranchised; Loses Vote if He Fails to Do So.

Register today!

A citizen cannot vote for the new city charter at the special election June 20 unless his name is on the registration books.

The registration books were opened in every voting precinct in the city at 8 a. m. Tuesday and will be open until 10 p. m.

Any voter in doubt as to where to go to register should call up the Board of Election Commissioners, Main 1530 or Central 3540, and give his address. A clerk will tell where to go to register.

The Board of Election Commissioners estimates that there are 30,000 voters in St. Louis who cannot vote either at the new charter election or the primary election, Aug. 4, unless they register.

Every voter who has changed his residence since he last registered must register today or he cannot vote.

Persons who have become of age since the last registration, or who have become citizens of St. Louis, or have taken out their naturalization papers, will have the opportunity to register.

The new city charter election, June 20, is one of the most important elections ever held in St. Louis.

Experts to Visit Polls.

The Board of Election Commissioners detailed 12 experts from its office to make the rounds of the polling places throughout the city and see that the judges and clerks performed their duties properly. The special men reported that in several instances the judges and clerks were improperly registering the voters. They show them how to do their work so that no voters would be disqualified.

Few complaints of any kind reached the Election Commissioners' office. A report from 233 Cherokee street, where the registration for the ninth precinct of the Eleventh Ward was to have been held, stated that all of the registration books and other supplies had been removed from the room since they were placed there two or three days ago.

Commissioners May and Butler went to the neighborhood to ascertain what the trouble was.

S. Persow, a tailor, of 5305 Berlin avenue, who rented his store to the Election Commissioner for registration purposes, put up a sign Tuesday that the registration would be in the rear. One of the commissioners went to his store and made him open the front door, and remove his tailoring goods to the rear.

The managers of the new charter campaign are especially eager that all supporters of the charter should register Tuesday. The charter organization is doing everything in its power to get the voters to register. All the political organizations are also busy getting the voters registered, but their principal interest is in the primary election.

It is expected that the vote of the Twenty-eighth Ward, Democratic, Republican and Progressive, met at the Hamilton Hotel Monday night and unanimously endorsed the charter.

It is expected that the vote of the Twenty-eighth Ward will be almost solid for the charter. Democratic City Committeeman William S. Rex, Republican City Committeeman Joseph B. Thomas and Progressive City Committeeman Julian M. Gibson are all strongly and actively supporting the charter and are having a thorough canvass of the ward made.

Indorsements for Charter. Republican Committeeman Charles L. Laxton of the Twenty-seventh Ward said Tuesday that he had a meeting of the precinct organization at Union and St. Louis avenues, Monday night, and that the workers were all strongly in favor of the charter. Thomas Leonard, Democratic City Committeeman, told a Post-Dispatch reporter Tuesday that he was for the charter, and that he was doing everything he could to hold the Twenty-seventh Ward Democratic workers in line for it. Laxton and Leonard agreed that on account of the strong Socialist vote in the ward it would require hard work to carry the Twenty-seventh Ward for the charter.

In addition to the indorsement of the charter by the joint precinct organizations of the Twenty-eighth Ward Monday night, and by the Republican precinct organization of the Twenty-seventh Ward, it was also indorsed by the Minnesota Tribe of Improved Order of Red Men at a meeting held at 215 Pine street, and

CAMPAIGNERS TO MEET THURSDAY

Finance Committee Expels How Contributions May Be Made to Campaign Fund.

The Citizens' New Charter Campaign Committee will meet again Thursday at 8:30 p. m. to discuss the situation with respect to the charter. Freeholder Samuel Rosenfeld will speak Wednesday night before the Democratic organization of the Seventeenth Ward. The Northwestern Protective Association also will have a meeting Wednesday night, at which freeholders Thomas J. Dalton and Charles Langeman will be the speakers.

The Finance Committee of the new charter organization has issued a statement explaining how contributions to the campaign fund may be made. The committee says the money is to be used for maintaining headquarters, for the distribution of literature and to pay the expenses of organization and meetings. It says:

"The money must be raised by popular subscription. This is not a business men's campaign, nor a downtown campaign. The funds must be secured from every quarter of the city, from men in every walk of life, in small as well as large amounts.

"A detailed statement of all receipts and expenditures will be open to the public and the press at all times, and all contributions will be published before the election.

"Each check, cash or leave your contribution at the office of the Citizens' Charter Campaign Committee, ground floor, southeast corner Eighth and Pine streets.

"All the money must be collected before election day, June 23. Therefore, make your contribution today in the interest of a greater and better St. Louis.

"The committee reserves the right to refuse contributions from any special interests or individuals opposed to the public's interests.

"Make your contribution now in any amount that you see fit. It is an investment towards better living and a greater St. Louis."

DRUMMERS MAY VOTE BY MAIL IN PRIMARY

Attorney-General Also Rules That Blanket Ballot Does Not Apply in Primary.

JEFFERSON CITY, June 14.—Secretary of State Roach today mailed to the clerks of all counties in the State two official rulings on election laws that have been disputed. On the advice of the Attorney-General he declared the blanket ballot law did not apply in primary elections and that the law permitting traveling men to vote by mail should be observed in the primary as well as general elections.

Roach said he had received hundreds of inquiries from County Clerks and party committeemen asking whether blanket or ribbon ballots should be used in the primary. The ruling is based on the fact that the blanket ballot law, in effect, repeals the specifications for printing tickets outlined in the general election law, but does not affect the primary law, which is covered by another section of the statutes.

He estimated that about $6 was taken from the telephone in the saloon of Mammoth & Brennan at 2614 South Broadway, where the box was found open, and about $10 from the telephone in the men's waiting room of the Iron Mountain depot at 200 South Broadway.

The telephone boxes at the T. Greason Livery Co., 3320 Locust street, and the Decker Livery Co., 2123 Washington avenue, were found empty.

CATHOLICS WIN IN ROME

Combine With Monarchists and Defeat Anti-Clerical Ticket.

ROME, June 14.—The entire Catholic and monarchist ticket was elected at the municipal elections held on Sunday, the result of which became known today.

Prince Colonna headed the list with over 8000 votes more than Ernesto Nathan, the former mayor, who led the anti-clerical coalition. Signor Nathan was last but one among the representatives of the minority, and he got on the list with only 22 votes to spare.

TEST FRAUD SUSPECTED

Navy Academy Candidates Said to Have Hired Substitutes.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 14.—Though the Naval Academy authorities refuse to make a definite statement, it became known today that there was some "audience work" on the part of one or more candidates for the academy who took the examinations last April and that an investigation is being made.

It is believed that the suspected candidates hired other persons to impersonate them to take the examination. It is said that one of the cases of fraud took place at Norfolk, Va., and it is rumored that the "substitute" received $200 for his work.

St. Louisian, Deporter, Arrested.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 14.—William S. Calvin, 32, of St. Louis, a deserter from the U. S. coast artillery, and now stationed at Columbia Island, was arrested Sunday night in Norfolk, N. Y., for illegal train riding, and wearing an army uniform under "citizen's" clothes. He was taken back to Staten Island today.

BAKING POWDER RISING QUESTION BEFORE CONGRESS

By Wire From the Washington Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Shall baking powder continue to rise by its own efforts, or must it take a lift from the government?

This is the latest conundrum Congress has been asked to solve. A committee of statesmen will be compelled to find an answer this summer, if the activities of the representatives of the Baking Powder Trust and the Independents prevail.

One of the independent manufacturers discovered recently that a drop of aluminum from the white of an egg has great potentialities in the baking powder business. A small amount of albumen will make baking powder rise with a rapidity and regularity that will put to shame old-fashioned brands, he discovered. Inasmuch as the rise is the all important element in baking powder, the independent manufacturer immediately applied the albumen to his brand.

When the spring season opened, this baking powder man started an army of drummers through the country, armed with the magic high-rising baking powder. By a simple test it took these drummers only a few minutes to prove to the jobbers and grocersmen that their baking powder would rise higher and faster than any other baking powder that ever found its way to the kitchen.

Orders pour in to factory.

The net result of their demonstrations the grocery cobblers was that orders poured into the same office with such rapidity the plant had to be worked in three shifts.

The independent drummers were followed by the Baking Powder Trust salesmen who discovered there was little demand for the "old reliable."

It was decided to lay the matter before Congress. A representative was hurried to Washington and after conferring with various Government officials he saw Representative French of Idaho, who introduced the following bill in the House:

"That Section 7 of the Act approved June 10, 1906, and known as the Food and Drugs Act, be hereby amended so that all baking powder containing albumen is adulterated; and, after the passage of this Act, any person who ships or delivers for shipment interstate commerce any baking powder containing albumen shall be liable to all the fines and penalties, including imprisonment, as provided in said Food and Drugs Act, for any violation of this Act; and on and after the passage of this Act, all baking powder, containing albumen shall be subject to seizure and destruction, as provided in Section 10 of the said Food and Drugs Act."

As soon as the bill was introduced, thousands of copies were mailed to the trade throughout the land.

When the independents heard of the French bill, one of their agents hurried to Washington and laid the matter before a friend who knows the way of Congress.

Problem for Grocersmen.

The following day Representative Broussard of Louisiana introduced this bill in the House:

"That from and after July 1, 1914, it shall be unlawful to manufacture or sell within the District of Columbia or in any other territory of the United States, or to ship from one state or territory to any other state or territory, or the District of Columbia, or to a foreign country, any baking powder which does not contain egg albumen as an ingredient thereof.

"Section 2. That any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding $500 for the first offense and on conviction for each subsequent offense not exceeding $100, or be imprisoned not exceeding one year, or by both, in the discretion of the court."

Within 24 hours 150,000 copies of the Broussard bill making it a crime to sell baking powder that did not contain albumen were in the mails addressed virtually to every jobber and wholesale grocer in the United States. The French bill proposes to make it a crime to sell baking powder containing albumen. The Broussard bill makes it a crime, after July 1, to sell baking powder that does not contain albumen, the magic riser.

Many letters have reached Washington from grocersmen indicating that there is much agitation over the advisability of buying baking powder of any sort.

The subcommittee on commerce is investigating.

Government Bulletins Solve Labor Problem by Telling Workers Where They're Needed.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—More than 100,000 men are now moving to the harvest fields of the West. Secretary of Labor Wilson announced today his complete satisfaction with the machinery the Government has built up to bring the unemployed of the East to the West, where employers are in need of help.

John T. Fitzpatrick, Labor Commissioner of Missouri, telegraphed today to the Department of Labor: "Your bulletins have put me in touch with thousands of men, enough to enable me to fill the demands for harvesters everywhere."

Secretary Wilson said that in some cities organized gangs of men are preying on newly arrived aliens, by charging them $2 apiece for the bulletins which the department is sending free to men in need of employment.

CHICAGO HIGH SCHOOL PLANS COLLEGE COURSE

Will Add 2 Years of Undergraduate Work for Needy Students' Benefit.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Two years of college work are planned to be added to the Chicago High School curriculum next year, according to an announcement today by Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, Superintendent of Public Schools. Such an innovation has been tested in the technical high schools. It will now be put in effect in the academic public high schools.

"Many young people wish to take a college course, but cannot afford it," Mrs. Young said. "All over the country there is now a tendency to have the high schools take the first two years of college work, the colleges the next two years and the universities the next two years."

"It is the tendency to get students into the colleges and universities at an earlier age, so that they will not be grown men and women when they are graduated."

Theaters in Chicago for Adults and Children Proposed.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Two classes of moving picture theaters, one for adults only, may be established here. Maj. M. L. C. Funkhouser, Deputy Superintendent of Police, who has had charge of censoring films, and a representative of the City Council last night agreed upon such an ordinance.

The classification is intended to end the necessity for the wholesale cutting of scenes from films to make them proper for children to see. The Council will consider the proposed ordinance within a week.

CROWD SEES TWO GIRLS AND ESCORTS RESCUED IN LAKE

Couples in Trying to Change Positions Cause Boat to Overturn at Ramona Park.

A picnic crowd saw two girls and their escorts rescued from drowning after the four, in trying to change their positions, caused their rowboat to capsize in the lake at Ramona Park, St. Louis County, Monday afternoon.

The girls were Alice Eberhardt, 15 years old, 2903 Arthur avenue, and Kate Sherrin, 17, 2903 Arthur avenue, Maplewood. Their escorts were John Halloran of 7488 Flora avenue, Maplewood, and Joseph J. Helthaus, 229 Acorn street.

Mrs. Eberhardt permitted the four to go rowing because she thought the lake was shallow, having seen it in the course of construction. The lake where the boat capsized is about twelve feet deep.

Mrs. Eberhardt and Halloran's mother were on a hill, watching a ball game when they were attracted by screams and saw the four struggling in the water.

Edward F. Corr, son of the park manager, and Edward Berry, boatman at the lake, obtained two boats and rowed rapidly to the rescue. Miss Eberhardt had gone down twice and was struggling, although Halloran was struggling to keep her afloat. Helthaus was trying to save Miss Sherrin, who was not as nervous as Miss Eberhardt.

The two couples were dragged into the boats and rowed to shore. They obtained dry clothing from the boatman by and then started home. Halloran and Helthaus were swimmers in the Pageant and Masque. They attend Loyla Hall in Maplewood. The girls are students at the Maplewood High School.

OWNER, FREED WHEN CAR KILLED MAN, ACCUSED

Sidney I. Rothschild, Who Ran Down John B. Turner, Charged With Manslaughter

Assistant Circuit Attorney Bishop today issued a warrant against Sidney I. Rothschild, president of the Rothschild Bros. Hat Co., of 6124 Kingsbury boulevard, charging him with manslaughter in the fourth degree as a result of running down with his automobile and killing John B. Turner of 3833 Waterman avenue, a construction engineer, at Clara avenue and Delmar boulevard June 2.

At the coroner's inquest a jury returned a verdict of accident, exonerating Rothschild. Bishop, after reading a transcript of the evidence, which showed that Turner was running from the north side to the south side of Delmar boulevard at Clara avenue to get an east-bound car when Rothschild, driving east, struck him, and he believed Rothschild's action showed carelessness sufficient to justify him in issuing the warrant.

RYAN TO SEND COLOMBIAN TREATY TO THE SENATE

Nicaraguan Treaty Also to Go to Upper House Tomorrow; He Expects Ratification.

SMITH MAKES CHARGES

Senator Assails the State Department in Connection With Nicaraguan Financing.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, June 15.—The Nicaraguan and Colombian treaties were discussed today at the Cabinet meeting. Secretary Bryan will lay them before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee tomorrow.

The Nicaraguan treaty proposes payment of $3,000,000 by the United States for a canal zone across Nicaragua and for naval bases.

The Colombian treaty proposes payment of $25,000,000 to Colombia for the partition of Panama.

Secretary Bryan said he expected both to be ratified. He refused to comment on the resolution introduced today by Senator Smith of Michigan, assailing the State Department in connection with Nicaraguan financing.

Senator Smith charged that the United States kept its marines in Nicaragua to influence the recent presidential election in violation of the treaty with Nicaragua and that the State Department has been acting in the interest of American bankers.

The resolution charges that the State Department, through its control of Nicaraguan customs houses, has forced the republic to redeem at par $4,500,000 of bonds issued by Zelaya, later repudiated, and bought in at about 50 per cent of their face value by Brown Bros. and Seligman & Co., American bankers, interested in Nicaraguan financing.

"The sole beneficiaries of the fraud upon a friendly republic," says the resolution, "were the Brown Bros., Seligman & Co. and Speyer & Co. and their allies."

The resolution also charges that the Nicaraguan National Railway was sold much below its value to the bankers.

Ernest H. Wanda, financial agent for Nicaragua, the resolution says, was designated by the State Department in the interest of the bankers.

POLO FIELD FIT FOR CRUCIAL GAME TODAY

If English Team Wins, Cup Will Be Taken Back; Americans Are Confident.

MEADOWBROOK CLUB, WESTBURY, L. I., June 15.—The international polo field was in fine condition this forenoon, and announcement was made, having more rain between now and 4 o'clock, the second game between America and England would be played.

Last night's rain, it was said, improved the condition of the field. There is to be no change in the lineup of the British team for the second contest, which would require the highest patriotism of the players, while the same players are retained, there is a change in their positions. Devereux Milburn is placed at his old position at back and Lawrence Waterbury at No. 3, thus transposing the two men from their positions in the first match.

This new lineup of the American team has restored confidence among their admirers. The challengers are still the favorites to win the second match, the odds remaining at 2 to 1.

If the Englishmen win today's game they will carry the cup back to England. If the Americans win, a third game will have to be played Saturday to decide the series.

A 2-mile wind out of the west swept the stands at 2 o'clock. The turf was thoroughly dry on the surface, but there was dampness underneath, making the field not quite as fast as on Saturday.

The crowd was slow in arriving. There were scarcely fifty persons in their seats at 2 o'clock.

BALLOONISTS THOUGHT TO HAVE MET DISASTER

Organized Search in Oregon Gives No Trace of Donaldson and Henderson.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 15.—That disaster in some form has overtaken the crew of the balloon Springfield, which vanished after having left here Thursday with three other balloons in a race under the auspices of the National Aero Club, seemed certain early today.

Yesterday and last night an organized search over the Sandy River district, where the balloon was reported seen at 4:30 a. m. Friday morning, proved fruitless.

Roy Donaldson was the pilot of the Springfield and Wilbur Henderson his aid. A message was sent to a brother of Henderson at Danville, Ill., yesterday, stating that Henderson was safe, but this was not based on fact, being done merely to allay anxiety in Danville.

mand of the besieging army, had been wounded.

Press dispatches from Mexico City stating an extraordinary session of the Congress probably would be called by Huerta were received here with keen interest. The speaker of the House was said to have announced that a "matter of great interest for the Mexican republic" would relate to Huerta's attitude which, which would require the highest patriotism of the Deputies, will be discussed.

Various interpretations was given to the dispatch, but it generally was supposed the subject of the extra session would relate to Huerta's attitude which recently has been outlined by his delegates at Niagara Falls.

RELIEF OF NATERA HALTED BY VILLA

Rebels in Desperate Straits at Zacatecas When Reinforcements Go Into Camp.

TORREON, June 15.—Gen. Natera's Constitutional army has suffered further reverses in a new attempt to capture Zacatecas from the Federal forces of Gen. Medina Barron and Gen. Villa has suddenly halted the advance of his forces, rushing to the assistance of Natera.

The chief of the division of the north has seemingly decided to show the rebels that he is indispensable by allowing Natera to lose unaided.

The vanguard of Villa's army was approaching the front when suddenly he stopped all activity, ordered his troops south of Fresnillo to go into camp, and himself returned to Torreon.

Villa said he had returned merely to bring up the last of his troops, but there was no evidence of activity in the comparatively small garrison remaining here. Villa added that it would be impossible to attack Zacatecas effectively until the railroad had been reconstructed nearer to the city in order to transport guns, ammunition, food, water and hospital supplies.

The fact that the rebels are allowing the transmission of news announcing the Natera reverses is taken to indicate that the break between the rebel Generals is serious and that Natera is in a desperate position. Today's advice indicates that the rebels have been persistently driven from one position to another south of Zacatecas, and that while Gen. Natera is not decisively defeated, his chance of victory are growing more remote every hour that Villa delays his Torreon.

Natera has not mentioned the loss of machine guns and ammunition, nor has he referred to casualties except to claim that both Federal and Constitutionalists have sustained heavy losses, with the Federal suffering most.

'PRINCE' WHO DIED MRS. JACK GOURAUD TAX OFFICER'S SON

Alexander Miskinoff Fourth Husband of Aimee Crocker Says He Has Independent Means.

LONDON, June 15.—Although Alexander Miskinoff, who last Thursday became the fourth husband of Mrs. Aimee Crocker Gouraud, has been registered here at the Piccadilly Hotel as "Prince Miskinoff," he told the register in the marriage office that he was the "son of an official in the Government Tax Department," and an attaché of the Russian embassy here when asked concerning the "Prince," said that while the name, Miskinoff, was as common in Russia as was Smith or Jones in English-speaking countries, he knew of not a single instance in which it carried a title.

Miskinoff and Mme. Gouraud were married in the registry office, with Mrs. Gouraud, foster daughter of the bride, and Amanda Gheron as the only witnesses. Mme. Gouraud gave her age as 40 years; the bridegroom said he was 28 and of independent means. The bride described herself as Aimee Crocker Gouraud, widow and daughter of Edwin Victor Crocker.

A Post-Dispatch correspondent called at the Piccadilly Hotel today and was shown to Mme. Miskinoff's apartments. When he asked: "Am I speaking to Mme. Miskinoff?" she corrected:

"Mme. Gouraud." Then she added: "I can't see you at present," and declined to say anything further. Later when the correspondent again sent up his card she replied that she was giving a dinner party.

Ashe won her in Poker Game. Mme. Miskinoff has traveled most of the habitable globe and much of that which is not habitable, experienced the whole gamut of thrills and married four husbands. Her first was Porter Ashe of San Francisco. He and Harry Gillig fell in love with her at the same time. Each wanted to marry her. She told them to fight for her hand and she would marry the winner.

Accordingly they fought a duel-at-poker. Ashe held four aces and married the girl. She divorced him within a year. Gillig then married her and she divorced him after several years.

Jackson Gouraud was No. 3. They moved to New York and opened a house at No. 46 West Fifty-sixth street, which soon became famous for the host and hostess' Sunday night "dances Coloriques" and other entertainments noteworthy for their unconventionality. It was their whim to have in the most conspicuous professional dancer or singer on the stage at the moment and to get up a spectacle of magnificence, each more splendid than the other. It was Jackson Gouraud's part to invent these.

Met Miskinoff at Sea. Less than three years ago, shortly after one of the most sensational of these entertainments, at which Odette Valery was the star entertainer, and many of the guests (including the former Mrs. Gouraud) wore serpents coiled about their bodies, Gouraud died.

The present Mme. Miskinoff, after a brief season of retirement, sold the house in West Fifty-sixth street, and a country place equally famous, for which she more than once refused $50,000, and departed for Paris, declaring New York and Broadway had lost their savor and were too unspeakably dull.

On the ship she met Miskinoff, and a short time ago he asked they were engaged.

NOTION STORE MAN AND A DRUGGIST ARRESTED

William Warren, 7 years old, proprietor of a notion store at 539 North Sarah street, was arrested Monday night on a charge of keeping a gambling device on his premises. A patrolman reported that he played 2 pennies into a machine known as "Tiger practice" and got four pieces of gum and two cigars.

Robert P. Heinrichs, proprietor of a drug store at 401 North Sarah street, was arrested on the same charge. A police man said he paid 10 cents there for a punch at a board, which netted him a piece of gum as a prize.

Both men were taken to the Newstead Avenue Police Station and then released on bond. Capt. Phillips said this was not a crusade against gambling, but that the policemen were carrying out orders issued by the Chief some time ago that all such games be stopped.

REALTY MAN SUES E. O. STANARD CO. FOR A $6300 FEE

J. N. Crouch Says He Was Agent in Closing Lease—Case Under Advisement.

Whether J. N. Crouch, a real estate broker, was employed by the E. O. Stanard Real Estate Co. to find a lessee for its property at 606-612 Washington avenue is to be determined in a suit which Crouch filed in Judge Grimm took under advisement Monday.

Crouch is suing the company for $6300 commission for services alleged to have been performed by him in getting the Stanard property for a period of 15 years at $25,000 a year. He avers he was employed by W. K. Stanard, in December, 1912, and was promised a commission, which has not been paid.

Crouch's Testimony. According to Crouch's testimony, Stanard, in a telephone conversation, agreed to pay a commission. Stanard denied he had agreed to pay and testified that, according to his recollection, the telephone conversation was in regard to property at 609 Washington avenue, owned by the Stanard Real Estate Co. He said he understood Crouch was acting for Leopold Ackerman, president of the Sonnenfeld company, at the time the deal for the lease was closed.

The Stanard Real Estate Co. was organized by E. O. Stanard, former president of the Stanard-Tilton Milling Co., who died March 11 at his home, 408 E. 12th street, and holds title to considerable downtown realty.

An inventory of E. O. Stanard's estate, made by the executors of his will, E. D. Tilton and W. K. Stanard, and filed in Probate Court, shows that E. O. Stanard owned 299 shares of stock in this company, the par value of which is listed at $399.00.

Stanard Stock Holdings. This stock is included in other personal property of the estate, which aggregates $1,847,657. He owned 250 shares of Stanard-Tilton Milling Co., par value, $25,000; 400 shares of St. Louis National Trust Co. stock, $20,000; American Car and Foundry Co., $10,000; National Bank of Commerce, $10,000; Third National Bank and other valuable stock. His total stock holdings are listed at $78,368.44.

The inventory also shows bonds appraised at $185.00. An unusual amount of cash on hand is shown. There is a certificate of deposit calling for $77,647.36, a deposit of $90.30 in the Louis-Union Milling Co. on deposit at the Stanard-Tilton Milling Co., amounting to $78,368.44.

Stanard's will gave the bulk of his property to his daughters, Mrs. E. D. Tilton and Miss Sue Stanard, and to W. K. Stanard, a son.

BURNS OUSTED BY CHIEFS

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 15.—The name of Detective William J. Burns is to be dropped from the list of honorary members of the International Association of Police Chiefs today. The activity of the detective in the Leo Frank case, in which he attempted to clear the Atlanta factory superintendent of the murder of Mary Phagan after Frank had been sentenced to death, is the cause.

Southern delegates, who are most bitter toward Burns, declared that they would carry the fight to the floor of the convention if his name is not dropped from the rolls.

'OBEY' IN MARRIAGE CONTRACT IMMORAL, SAYS DR. SHAW

She Advocates Weddings, but Asserts There Should Be Liberty for Man and Wife—and Liberty, She Says, Is Not "Looseness."

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, June 15.—"I am a strong advocate of marriage," said the Rev. Dr. Anna S. Shaw, president of the National Suffrage Association of the United States, today at a Post-Dispatch reporter. Dr. Shaw is just back from Rome, where she attended the session of the International Council of Women, and is full of enthusiasm for the cause of woman suffrage.

She thinks the marriage question is intimately related to the votes movement. "I am an advocate of marriage because I believe that the home life is the most ideal life in the world," she continued. "At the same time I have so high an ideal of marriage, its significance and its responsibilities that I do not think everybody is fitted for marriage, and certainly everyone is not fitted to rear children. I consider that the old form of marriage ceremony has many defects, which, however good they might have been at the time the form was written, make it unsuited to our times."

She said that she believed that the home life is the most ideal life in the world, and that she believed that the home life is the most ideal life in the world, and that she believed that the home life is the most ideal life in the world.

ALBANIAN CAPITAL IS AGAIN ATTACKED BY MUSSULMEN

Artillery Duel Follows Between the Insurgents and Prince William's Force.

By Associated Press. DUTRAZZO, Albania, June 15.—Another attack on the Albanian capital was made by Mussulman insurgents today. Heavy artillery was brought to bear on the defending force commanded by Prince William.

The guns of the attacking force were soon located in the vicinity of Rastab and the opposing forces then engaged in a brisk artillery duel.

Detachments of bluejackets from the international fleet lying off the coast took up positions in the neighborhood of the foreign legations and consulates and also erected barricades around the Royal Palace.

Several Austrian torpedo destroyers started early in the day for Scutari to embark 1800 Malsiotti tribesmen loyal to Prince William's Government to reinforce the garrison of the capital.

Maj. Kocifasme, one of the Dutch officers of the gendarmerie, today was appointed to succeed to the command of the troops left vacant yesterday by the death during the fighting of Col. Thompson.

The insurgents express their determination to have a Mussulman as ruler of the country.

100 GREEKS MASSACRED BY TURKS, SAY REFUGEES

Thousands of Inhabitants Flee From Phokis, Near Smyrna, to Salonika.

ATHENS, Greece, June 15.—Greek refugees from Asia Minor today brought reports of the massacre by Turks of 100 Greeks, including priests, old men and children, in the town of Phokis, 25 miles northwest of Smyrna.

The town, according to the official report, was invaded by a horde of armed men, who looted and then set fire to all the buildings. They are said to have been assisted by Turkish police.

The inhabitants, most of whom were Greeks, fled, leaving their property behind, and 300 of them have reached Saloniki. They declare that the bodies of the massacred people were thrown into wells.

The refugees, many of whom were suffering from wounds, were in a state of starvation on their arrival.

DR. HILL DENOUNCES CHARTER'S FOES AS CHRONIC KNOCKERS

Founder of People's League Declares Some of Its Members Would Oppose Anything. MAKES THEM A PROPOSAL

"If Any 13 of Them Can Draft a Charter and Agree to It We'll Adopt It," He Says.

Dr. William Preston Hill, founder of the People's League, and widely known as the man who put the initiative and referendum into the Missouri Constitution, in a statement given out Tuesday, characterized the present officials of the League who are opposing the proposed new city charter as chronic knockers.

Behind them, Dr. Hill asserted, are the crooked politicians and their henchmen and the special privilege interests who are the real opponents of the new charter.

Dr. Hill was one of the leaders in the fight against the 1910 charter, the basis of his objection to that charter being that it contained no provision for the initiative and referendum. He is strongly supporting the proposed charter, holding it to be in every way satisfactory to the advocates of direct legislation, and a charter that will enable St. Louis to make substantial progress in its municipal government.

Declaring he is not inconsistent, Dr. Hill said the opponents of the present charter are republishing a circular which he issued in the campaign three years ago, and by it trying to demonstrate that he is inconsistent in his present attitude. He said there was no inconsistency in his present position.

It is that the charter proposed three years ago lacked some of the progressive features essential to a modern charter, and furthermore, I felt that the other Board of Freeholders, dominated by Jay Howe, did not consider the best interest of the people of St. Louis," said Dr. Hill. "But now the situation is very different. This last Board of Freeholders was chosen fairly and impartially and is really representative of the people of St. Louis. We could not hope to get a better Board of Freeholders in the next 50 years.

"The fact that they were not unanimous is more in their favor than otherwise, because there is sure to arise an honest difference of opinion among 13 men on so complex a subject as a charter. They have studied the problem of a charter for months, have listened to experts of all kinds on the subject, have gathered data from every available source and have examined and discussed night after night all the charters that have been adopted by other cities in recent years.

Freeholders honest. Conscientious. "The proposition is that with all this information before them they have drawn up as good a charter as it is possible for St. Louis to have under the restrictions of the State Constitution. "I am convinced that any other 13 representative freeholders that we might select, would substantially reach the same general conclusion.

"To assert otherwise is equivalent to accusing this board of deliberate and malicious lying to hoodwink the people of St. Louis, which is absurd. Their whole course has been against such a suspicion. Every citizen has been invited to appear before the board and present his views and their doors have always been open to the public at all times and they, of their own accord, have consulted everybody who could throw any light on the subject.

"I am convinced, therefore, that they have honestly and conscientiously done the best they knew how to meet the expectations of St. Louis in this new charter.

Makes proposal to "Knockers." "I feel it my duty, therefore, to urge every good citizen to support this new charter, and can see no sense in continued opposition merely for the sake of opposition.

set rid of a Charter which has been so amazingly favorable to them in order to get another one trotted out to the 'knock' and especially to get one that gives the city power of municipal ownership and control. I think that any ordinary intelligence can figure out which Charter the 'Big Clinch' would prefer."

Dr. Hill was asked what he thought of an argument current in some circles that St. Louis does not need a new Charter and the old one is "good enough." To this he replied: "The present old Charter belongs to the old Federal type of checks and balances which was in vogue everywhere in the cities of the United States 50 years ago. At that time the initiative, referendum and recall were unknown."

in this country and it was thought necessary to the public officials up to so that they could not do anything in order to keep them straight.

"Experience has demonstrated that the effect of this was to tie the hands of the officials from doing anything for the public welfare, but it did not keep a crook from being crooked—on the contrary, it enabled a crook to hide his responsibility behind others and it made the city government weak and inefficient and had the very opposite effect from what was intended.

"With the initiative, referendum and recall, these checks and balances are unnecessary and the people themselves can exercise the proper check on their own government. We can then have a government combining the qualities of efficiency, strength and honesty, for these reasons all the large cities in the United States have long since discarded this old system of checks and balances and have adopted modern progressive charters.

"St. Louis is the only large city that still clings to this old form of charter."

set rid of a Charter which has been so amazingly favorable to them in order to get another one trotted out to the 'knock' and especially to get one that gives the city power of municipal ownership and control. I think that any ordinary intelligence can figure out which Charter the 'Big Clinch' would prefer."

Dr. Hill was asked what he thought of an argument current in some circles that St. Louis does not need a new Charter and the old one is "good enough." To this he replied: "The present old Charter belongs to the old Federal type of checks and balances which was in vogue everywhere in the cities of the United States 50 years ago. At that time the initiative, referendum and recall were unknown."

in this country and it was thought necessary to the public officials up to so that they could not do anything in order to keep them straight.

"Experience has demonstrated that the effect of this was to tie the hands of the officials from doing anything for the public welfare, but it did not keep a crook from being crooked—on the contrary, it enabled a crook to hide his responsibility behind others and it made the city government weak and inefficient and had the very opposite effect from what was intended.

"With the initiative, referendum and recall, these checks and balances are unnecessary and the people themselves can exercise the proper check on their own government. We can then have a government combining the qualities of efficiency, strength and honesty, for these reasons all the large cities in the United States have long since discarded this old system of checks and balances and have adopted modern progressive charters.

"St. Louis is the only large city that still clings to this old form of charter."

MISS CAMPBELL TO MARRY YOUNG CIVIL ENGINEER

Father, Whose Funeral Was Held Yesterday, Was Said to Have Approved the Match.

The engagement of Miss Lois Campbell, only child of the late James Campbell, and Elsey G. Burkham, son of Mrs. E. G. Burkham, of the Buckingham Hotel, was made known after the Campbell funeral, Monday evening.

Miss Campbell and her mother will return within a few days to their summer home in Greenwich, Conn., and it was said that Burkham probably would accompany them. He was at the Greenwich home at the time of Campbell's death, and came west on the train which brought Mrs. Campbell and Miss Campbell to St. Louis, though he did not appear with them when St. Louis was reached.

The time of the wedding has not been announced, and it is not believed to have been determined. Campbell is said to have learned of the engagement, and to have given his approval, some time before his death. Burkham is 26 years old, and is a member of the firm of Brooks & Burkham, engineering contractors, in the Mermod-Jacard Building. He is a brother of Robert Burkham of 6035 Westminister place, Second Associate City Counselor, and of Mrs. E. Lansing Ray of 484 Lake avenue, wife of the advertising manager of the Globe-Democrat.

Mrs. Robert Burkham was formerly Miss Ada Davis, daughter of Horatio N. Davis of 18 Vandeventer place.

The Burkham family lived in North-west Iowa at the time when Elsey Burkham was born, and later removed to Cincinnati. Mrs. Burkham and her sons came to St. Louis 12 years ago. Elsey Burkham was educated in Smith Academy, and did not take a college course.

Miss Campbell is nearly 21 years old, and was educated in the Sacred Heart Convent, St. Louis, and in a private school in Greenwich. She made her social debut in December, 1912, but has not shown excessive fondness for society.

JAMES CAMPBELL FUNERAL BRIEF

Body Is Placed in Mausoleum Following Service Lasting 20 Minutes.

The body of James Campbell was placed in the Campbell mausoleum in Calvary cemetery late Monday afternoon, after a brief funeral service at the New Cathedral Chapel. The ceremony at the church lasted only 20 minutes, no eulogy or address of any kind being delivered by the officiating priest, the Rev. Father Francis Gilligan.

At 3 p. m., when the active and honorary pallbearers were assembling at the Campbell home, 2 Westmoreland place, all street cars on all the lines of the United Railways Co. stopped for five minutes, in honor of the memory of Campbell, who was chairman of the board of directors of the North American Co., controlling the United Railways.

Mrs. Campbell was accompanied by Festus J. Wade, and Miss Lois Campbell by John Scullin, on the short ride from the home to the church. The pallbearers followed in automobiles, and the honorary pallbearers were joined at the church by surviving directors of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, who had met at the Francis residence, across the street. They formed a line in front of the church as the casket was carried in, and again as it was brought out.

A negro valet, nearly 20 years in Campbell's service, walked in with the family party and occupied a front pew in the church. Campbell's sister, Mrs. Rosa Curran of 2441 Nebraska avenue, was unable to attend, being ill with rheumatism.

The church was nearly filled. A number of old and middle-aged women, some of them quite plainly dressed, were in the congregation. A small group of men stood outside the church during the service, although there was room for them inside. There was no difficulty with crowds anywhere, although quite a group gathered at the entrance of Westmoreland place to see the casket carried from the house.

Floral offerings, some of them large designs, were arranged in front of the mausoleum after the casket had been deposited within.

The World's Fair directors, in resolutions adopted before the funeral, called attention to his work on the Forest Park Restoration Committee, and to the pride which he subsequently took in the St. Louis statue on Art Hill.

Auto Fatality at Bridge.
 CLEVELAND, O., June 16.—John S. Stettenfeld, saloon keeper, was killed, and John F. Goldenbogen, for several years an employee of the United States Senate, probably was fatally hurt, when their automobile ran into a bridge south of here yesterday.

PATMONT VANISHES IN DETROIT AFTER LEAVING CHURCH

"Dry" Worker Said to Have Made Will, Which Also Has Disappeared.

DETROIT, Mich., June 16.—The police department, after working on the case nearly all night, said today they were absolutely without a clue to the whereabouts of the Rev. R. Patmont, the Westville (Ill.) worker, who disappeared last night from his temporary home here, where he had been staying since his alleged kidnapping in Illinois in March.

The minister's wife and friends also said they had heard nothing from him since he attended church services last evening, and started for his rooming place, two miles distant. Patmont and his wife have been living in Detroit most of the time since he was found in the garret of a house near Columbia, Ill., where he insisted he had been held in captivity by kidnapers.

His disappearance in Illinois resulted in a nation-wide search, when he was found, he gave out a sensational account of his abduction and alleged harsh treatment.

The Rev. C. F. Witty of this city took an active part in the search for Patmont when the latter first disappeared and when he was found Witty had him brought here and secreted in a house at 160 West Perry avenue. Several days ago, it is said, Patmont declared he thought several men were following him. Believing his life was in danger, he made out his will, according to his friends, and the instrument was completed and signed yesterday. They now say they do not know what became of the will.

Patmont's expenses in the "dry" campaign prior to his disappearance in Illinois were paid by the local church, presided over by the Rev. Mr. Witty.

The missing man was to have departed early today for St. Louis to attempt to identify a man held there as a suspect in the alleged kidnapping.

RECALLS HIS OWN NAME

Man Who Loses Memory Is Eiden von Busker of Cleveland.

After being at the city hospital two days suffering from temporary loss of memory Eiden von Busker, 22 years old, a stevedock of Cleveland recalled his name Monday afternoon.

von Busker went to Police Captain O'Brien of Central District Station Saturday and said he could remember nothing that happened before June 5, when he awoke in a box car at Louisville, Ky.

Though his clothing bore the marks of Cleveland dealers he at first insisted that he had never been in that city. When his memory returned he said he believed he was put into the box car by highwaymen. He was discharged from the hospital Monday afternoon and started for Cleveland.

SECURITIES WHICH LORIMER BANK HELD ARE GONE

Examiner Finds Only Receipts for Collateral and Calls in Attorney-General.

$1,500,000 IS INVOLVED

Twenty-Five Per Cent More Than He'd Pay for Depositor's Claim, Says Official.

CHICAGO, June 16.—A report on his examination of the La Salle Street Trust and Savings Bank, expected to be made today by Daniel V. Harkin, State Bank Examiner, to Attorney-General Patrick J. Lucey.

Harkin's detailed report on the condition of the bank, he said, could not be presented to James J. Brady, State Auditor, before tomorrow. He said that his report was delayed by searches for collateral in large amounts for which he found only receipts in the bank's vaults. "It will be my duty to lay these facts at once before the Attorney-General," said Harkin.

More Than Million Involved.
It is rumored that Harkin has been unable to account for at least a million and a half dollars of the bank's assets.

Harkin will report to the Attorney-General among other things these findings: That he has been unable to locate in the bank vaults a substantial part of the bonds and securities, questioned by him in January, and now listed as part of the suspended bank's assets. Only "receipts" for large quantities of this collateral could be found when the vaults were searched.

That he has found one note for $50,000 given by W. A. McElie, which was carried as $12,500, and that the collateral furnished by McElie has disappeared. McElie freely admitted he owed the institution $50,000 and said he was prepared to pay it. He asserted he had paid interest on the $50,000 last month and he supposed the collateral to be safe in the possession of the bank.

"Does 25 per cent represent a fair estimate of what the depositors will be able to recover after all is said and done?" Harkin was asked.

"That is more than I would give for a depositor's claim," was Harkin's flat answer.

Syndicate to Take Bank.
That a syndicate of bankers who are members of the clearing house is being organized to take over the La Salle Street Bank, was confirmed by C. B. Munday, vice-president. The plan includes the immediate purchase of the institution and the retirement of Munday and William Lorimer, the president.

"It is necessary that Mr. Lorimer and myself resign to restore confidence," Munday asserted. "We reached that conclusion after a few of the principal stockholders had talked over the matter. Our resignations were not suggested, but it is evident that it is the only thing we can do."

"The La Salle Street Bank, under the reorganization, should be permitted to reopen at once. The four outside State banks which have been closed will be separated from the La Salle Street Bank Bank reorganized by men who have the confidence of the neighborhoods in which they live."

ALBANY, N. Y., June 16.—The State Department of Agriculture has placed a quarantine on dogs in 15 counties in an effort to check the spread of rabies. The disease is worst in Westchester County, where the entire country has been placed under quarantine.

Westchester County is the only county to be entirely quarantined so far. Next to Westchester the disease has reached its greatest prevalence in Monroe and Steuben counties.

THAW PLANNING TO FLEE TO FRANCE, SAYS RUMOR

Phone Talk With Norman Lees, Former Matteawan Inmate, Gives Rise to Report.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Half an hour after the news reached Thaw in Gotham, N. H., that the United States Supreme Court had refused him bail, Thaw was in conference over a long-distance telephone with Norman Lees, who, after obtaining his own release from the Matteawan Insane Asylum, made several attempts to get Thaw out. This gave rise to a revival of the rumor that Thaw contemplated flight to France.

Lees returned to the United States from England last Thursday.

Several times Lees has been on Thaw's salary list, but last December, several days before he sailed, the two had a misunderstanding. This quarrel has been patched up, Lees says.

FIVE WOMEN, TWO ST. LOUISANS, TAKE BAR EXAMINATION

Myrtle Wood and Cletia Smith Among 198 Who Would Become Lawyers.

JEFFERSON CITY, June 16.—Five Missouri women, two from St. Louis and three from Kansas City, are among the 198 persons taking the State bar examination here this week. The St. Louis women are Miss Myrtle B. Wood of 333 Julian avenue and Miss Cletia M. Smith of 3890 Hartford street.

The class being examined is the largest in the history of the State Examination Board. A number of politicians are among the 198 applicants from St. Louis.

State Senator Michael E. Kinney, who is taking the examination, said he had been studying law at home, although he first began his studies when a Constable several years ago. Kinney said he had to do lots of legal work and could not appear in court unless he gets a license.

"Why not be a lawyer and save money?" Kinney asked. Kinney's legal work consists principally of appearing in Police and Justice of the Peace courts in behalf of his constituents in the Fifth Ward, which is downtown in St. Louis.

Among other St. Louis politicians taking the examination are: A. Sidney Johnson, State Factory Inspector and former newspaper man; Vincent A. O'Doherty, chief clerk in the Excise Commissioner's office, and Chief Deputy Sheriff Joseph F. Dickmann Jr. Johnson has been studying in the Washington University Law School.

Former Diplomat Shoots Partner.
HAVANA, June 16.—Col. Charles M. Aubrey, former Chief of Police of Havana City and former Minister to Peru, last night shot and fatally wounded his business partner, Genaro Canabal, the cashier of the concern, Senor Dirube, who interfered, was shot in the hand.

How Ladies Improve Looks!

"Many ladies, old and young, suffer a round of tortures with their nerves, and many are so frail, thin and bloodless that their splendid features are lost sight of, while a vain attempt to cancel the angularity of the figure, deceives no one but themselves and really excites the pity or ridicule of the world," said a well-known, largely employed practicing physician, in a recent lecture at a young ladies' college. "I do not mind exposing a little secret of mine to all such, as it can do no harm and may result in much happiness and health. It is simply this: Any thin, bloodless, nerve-tortured man or woman can become as fit as the fittest by taking regularly for several months an easily obtained pharmaceutical product known by the profession and pharmacists as 'three-grain hypo-nuclease tablets,' put up in sealed packages with directions for home use.—ADVERTISEMENT.

PERMANENT WINNING FEDERAL PLAYERS ALL TO GET AUTOS

Outlaw Magnates at Meeting, Decide to Give Each Man $3500 Car.

RAID ON IN EARNST

Attack on Organized Baseball Will Result in Many "Leaps" to New League.

By W. J. O'Connor.

Next to being an "indefinite lobbyist" for a shipbuilding trust, we'd rather be a struggling ballplayer in the Federal League. True, some of the lesser lights in the outlaw organization receive only a scant $2000 as their annual income, but then consider their secure position! The difference between a lobbyist and a Federal League player is that the lobbyist's salary may be stopped if he doesn't deliver the "old bird" in the "old ditch."

However, the lot of the Federal League player has been proved a tough one. For instance, it is impossible for the Federal League players to participate in a world's series. There will be no action out of the close of the season, and for that reason, if not other, players on the pennant-winning Federal team may discover next October that their annual income is less than that of the Giants and Athletics.

Plan for the Winners.

After weighing these facts the Federal promoters decided that something must be done for the players. A meeting was held of the league officials. It was decided to give each player on the pennant-winning team an automobile—a 1914 model Ford.

Instead of a world's series, the new league will promote next fall a barnstorming trip between the pennant-winning team and an all-star aggregation made up of the best players from the other clubs. The all-stars and the winners will tour the circuit, playing a short series in each city.

Recently in Chicago, Business Manager John M. Ward of the Brooklyn club had a conference with Eddie Collins, who was dubbed by McGraw the greatest ball player in the world. Collins, the Brooklyn player, wanted him next season. An agent of the Brooklyn club, which is now for a series with the Terriers, explained Ward's position:

They Can Afford to Lose.

"The Wards are multimillionaires, and baseball is their hobby. Just now their club isn't making much money as home. Indeed it is losing. But there are many millions in New York who spend as high as $1000 a month on their yachts and automobiles. Ward is willing to spend that much on a ball club. If Walter Johnson and Eddie Collins do not join the Brooklyn team next season it will be because they have an utter disregard for money. Brooklyn will pay them a bigger salary than anybody else in baseball. Ward is shooting high for 1915."

Among the favorites with the Brooklyn club, which opens Tuesday, is Steve Evans, ex-Cardinal, who is leading the outlaw league in hitting. Evans is in better condition than he has been since 1911, and he's playing the Brooklyn game. Tom Seaver, Bill Dwyer, and Sam Rice are not to mention Joe Quinn, the trainer, are the other familiar faces. Tuesday is called day at Fen Park.

MARSANS' OFFER FAILS TO INTEREST RED SOX

Armand Marsans, the Cuban outfielder who jumped the Red Sox to the St. Louis club, has been offered a $100,000 contract by a St. Louis store manager. The store manager is interested in the Cuban player in the outlaw league, but Marsans is not interested in the new venture and has declined the offer. Marsans is now in St. Louis and is being trained by the Red Sox.

WBAU COLUMN

Lining Us Up With the Turks.

REPRESENTATIVES of 28 nations voted at the International Amateur Federation meeting in Paris, France, to throw open athletics, and particularly the Olympic games, to the eternal feminine.

Japan, which leads the world in divorces, and Turkey, which is yet hardly out of the danse du ventre of booby-knocking stage of advancement, have lined up with France and the United States in voting to admit women to the Olympic games. The competition with men!

Queer company for two of the foremost nations of the world to be keeping, when all the remainder of Christendom is on the other side of the question.

Get Off Your Foot, Jim.

JAMES E. SULLIVAN, for years dictator of amateur athletics in this country, and the best posted and most efficient executive the A. A. U. has ever had, is nevertheless responsible for America's position in this matter. Amateur athletics in this country owe much to Mr. Sullivan. Also, there are some things he has done that are not admirable. One of these is his handling of the game in the interest of a sporting goods manufacturing company. The other is his often manifested opposition to the entry of women into the recognized athletic field as competitors against men.

Coast Promoters Fight Back. Several instances James has put forward, it would seem to stamp out attempts to oppose men to women. He tried to bar mixed swimming competitions on the Pacific Coast, but he received a setback that made him wince.

Some Notable Women Athletes.

ALREADY women approximate to the men in certain competitions. Notably lawn tennis and swimming. May Sutton, in her prime, was more than the equal of some of our high-class men players. In actual fact, she was one of the best first-class masculine stars in the world.

Rose Pitonof, the Boston girl, is one of the greatest endurance swimmers in the world and accomplished what many daring men have failed to do—crossed the Atlantic in a rowing boat. Even now she is matched in a "mini" event with Charles E. Plonke, the wonderful modern hero, to swim river one or the other quits, exhausted. They will paddle back and forth between the Charleston Bridge and the Boston Light, Boston Harbor, until one is unable to continue. At the swim the light alone is considered a remarkable achievement. It will be seen that Rose is herself some hero.

An Olympic for Women. THE present plans of the International federation will probably throw open to women only a few sports, such as tennis, lawn tennis, and swimming. A suggestion from Sweden was that, for the present, the Olympic committee consider holding a set of games exclusively for feminine competition.

Blind, and Will Not See. ORGANIZED baseball, which turned a deaf ear to the rumble of the Federal League, at its start, is still keeping the wadding in its hearing apparatus. Otherwise, it might not smile and overlook the surface mutterings audible wherever the new league's ears are burrowing.

J. J. LANNIN, who owns the team that will be the runner up and possibly the winner in the American League series, the Red Sox, who impresses one as being a good sportsman and a well-balanced business man, is one of the few who do not fear the outcome of the outlaw's campaign.

"I can't for the life of me take them seriously," declared Mr. Lannin, Monday. "They are losing money in all save one or two cities and they cannot support the league. These two, the clients, is best organized and a legitimate mistake was made in coming into St. Louis."

It's a Lean Year, Men. INDICATIONS are that they must collapse. I don't profess to guess what they're doing but the organized baseball, however, will be

MISS ARNSTEIN, STATE CHAMPION, ENTERS K. C. MEET

Winners of Local Tennis Tournament Will Compete in Central West.

Miss Natalie Arnstein, who successfully defended her title as women's state champion by defeating Mrs. W. W. Yager of Kansas City on the Triple A courts yesterday afternoon, may enter the Central West tournament for women which is to be held in Kansas City next week. Miss Arnstein, although a player of uncommon ability, has never entered a tournament outside of the city. However, after yesterday's brilliant victory she was persuaded by friends to enter the Kaw City championship.

Five other local players have already entered and will leave this week so as to get some practice on the foreign courts. Those who have entered are Misses Mimi Garsche, Lesley La Beaume, Cecile Bradshaw and Katherine Wagner of this city. Miss Katherine May Voorhees, who formerly was a St. Louisan but now resides in Chicago, will enter from her former city. Miss Virginia Randall of Fort Wayne also will leave with the local contingent.

Match Keenly Contested. Miss Arnstein's victory over Mrs. Yager yesterday was a brilliant one and came after three hard-fought sets, 4-6, 6-4, 6-2. Mrs. Yager played a smashing, alert, offensive game, but could not cope with Miss Arnstein's deliberate, defensive play. The visitor put everything she had behind the ball in the first set and gained results. However, she soon tired and wilted under her opponent's grueling playing tactics.

Miss Arnstein has a stronger backhand stroke than fore-hand and, as most women players, actually gained many points. Her service is nothing but a well-placed ball, easy to return.

Doak Slated to Oppose Phillies in First Game

Cards, Now Tied With Pirates for Third Place, Hope to Bag Odd Game.

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—With Willie Doak, the blond spitfire, whose fast appearance against the Phillies resulted in a 4-0 victory over Grover Alexander, on the hurling hill, the Cardinals hope to continue their winning streak here today. They now have won five in a row and aim to bag at least two of the three strikeouts here. Yesterday's game was postponed.

The club still is crippled by the loss of Dolan and Butler, although George Whitted is playing a bang-up game at short. It was Whitted who won the 15-inning game in Brooklyn on Saturday. Dolan is expected to return before the club quits this town, while Butler's suspension surely will be lifted shortly.

The Cards play here today, Wednesday and Thursday and then jump to Boston for four games. They stop off at Pittsburgh for five, getting home at the tag end of the month. Huggins hopes to return to St. Louis in the first division.

Yanks Will Not Enjoin Pitcher Schulz Unless Commission So Orders

NEW YORK, June 16.—The case of Reine Schulz, pitcher of the New York Americans, now rests with the National Commission. President Frank Farrell of the New York club will take action to enjoin Schulz from appearing with the Buffalo Federals only on the initiative of the National Commission.

"I am going to put it up to the National Commission," Mr. Farrell said today. "This body has absolute control in all matters relating to the Federal League. On my account I would not spend five cents over Schulz not even for the satisfaction of tying him up through legal technicalities. If the National Commission wishes me to stop him from playing in Buffalo it will be an easy matter to do. Schulz is in this State and an injunction would keep Schulz idle at least half of the playing season."

Buffed Beat Crandall in Eleventh Inning and Advance to First Place

In the fifth inning of Monday's game, which was lost to Buffalo, 4-2, in 11 innings, the enemy had runners on second and third bases and was threatening to score. Crandall pitched and Ford hit a high fly. Crandall was so sure of the ball being caught that he ambled toward the bench. However, Komersa was playing too deep and Ford's dinky fly fell for a single, two runs scoring. Komersa should have caught the ball in his hip pocket. Eventually, a home run by Komersa tied the score, but Buffalo came on and won in extra innings.

Crandall pitched a bang-up game. He yielded fewer hits and fewer walks than Ford and fanned 12 men, but the fate had decreed that he should lose. By winning this game, the Buffeds moved into first place, passing the Terriers, who were beaten by Chicago.

The local team played the snappiest ball of the season. Manager Brown was on the coaching line, exhorting his men to show some of the "old pep" and they did, but couldn't win. A continuation of the same aggressive brand of baseball is sure to bring results, however. Over 150 fans reported at the ball yard.

HAL CHASE SAYS HE WILL HOP TO BUFFALO FEDERALS

Star First Sacker Has Served Comiskey With Ten-Day Notice.

CHICAGO, June 16.—Hal Chase, first baseman of the White Sox, intends to sign a contract with the Buffalo team of the Federal League. Notice will be served on Charles A. Comiskey, according to the best information, in which Chase will take advantage of the 10-day clause in his contract and at the expiration of the 10 days he will report to Buffalo. The story leaked out today on a personal telegram from Buffalo, which was to the effect that R. T. Carroll, business manager of the Buffalo team, was in Chicago and had completed the deal which would take Chase away from Chicago. Chase admitted it was true and that he proposed to serve notice on Comiskey before the starting of the game with Philadelphia this afternoon.

Baseball fans throughout the country will be surprised at the sudden change of policy of the Federal League. Several weeks ago President Gilmore is said to have refused to allow any of the teams in the new organization to touch any of Comiskey's players.

Wood Pitched as if He'd Never Been Sick a Day in His Career

Now that Joe Wood has firmly convinced himself and the Browns that he is the Joe Wood of 1912, a place must be made for the Red Sox in the first division. Joe edged the Red Sox to within a half game of the Red Sox, Monday, by handing his customary shutout defeat to the Sportman's Park crew. The score was 2 to 0.

Joe worked as if he had never been ill a day in his life. He allowed the Browns only three hits and was going just as good in the ninth, in fact better, than he showed in the first. But two passes were obtained off Wood.

The day was ideal for a pitcher of Wood's stripe. It was rather dark, making it next to impossible to see his fast ball. While he buzzed it through often enough to let the Browns know that he still had it in his repertoire, Wood also mixed in a tantalizing curve. He had 'em hitting pop flies or easy grounders to the infielders.

Only three batters faced Wood in eight of the nine innings. Starting the third, Leary got one of his two singles off Joe and moved to third on infield out of Wagon and James. He perished there when Shotton rolled to Yerkes for the third out.

There was but one stage of the game when Wood was in a pinch. That was at the very beginning, when he pitched four successive bad balls to Shotton. He also pitched out two successive balls to Miller, making six balls in a row.

Manager Rickey made another strange play with his pitchers. Ten minutes before the game started he said Wellman or James would pitch. At game time, Walter Levering, the globe-trotter, stroled to the mound and was named for the game. Then play on a grounder from Scott's bat by Austin would have saved Leary.

At the beginning of the second inning, Bill James took up the hurling. He pitched a good game the remainder of the way, the fact that one time was scored in the seventh inning as much the fault of Pratt as it was of the pitcher's.

Bill showed his best form in the fifth. Infield singles by Gardner and Yerkes opened the inning, the former going to third on the latter's blow. Then James fanned Cady and moved to the mound. He doubled trying to steal off Joe's third strike.

Attendance, close to 200.

McGovern to Get Chance to Fight Champion Kilbane

Cleveland Promoter Thinks St. Louis Feather Could Give Johnny a Run.

Benny McGovern, St. Louis' best representative of the featherweight boxing division, and one of the top little fellows in the country, will probably be matched with Champion Johnny Kilbane, the bout to take place in this city early in September or late in August.

Charles P. Salen, of the St. Louis Motorhome Co., a Cleveland man, is interested in the match. Salen is here on a visit looking after his boxing interests. He stated that he had a talk with Kilbane, recently, Salen said.

Kilbane is eager to meet McGovern. He told me that Benny was the cleverest of all the featherweights now in the game and that he was the only 122-pounder able to give him an argument.

Kilbane has not been able to find a featherweight of class to fight for some time, and most of his opponents have been lightweight. He figures that McGovern has improved greatly and might now be able to give him a serious run for the title.

When the match is made it will be held here, preferably, although Cleveland promoters are willing to handle it.

Many Fighters Abroad.

Probably never before in the history of pugilism have there been so many American fight stars boxing in foreign countries as at present. In Australia are Eddie McGovern, Jimmy Clabby, Jeff Smith, Milburn Saylor and Joe Shugart; in England, Young Ahearn, Harry Stone, Gunboat Smith, Jim Coffey, the "Dumbkin Giant," and Willie Ritchie on his way there; while in France are Jack Johnson, Frank Moran, Tony Rose and Tom Kennedy, all heavyweights.

Charley Horn, the California heavyweight, Montana Dan Sullivan, the middleweight, and Arthur Pelkey, the heavyweight of Chicago, Mass., are now on their way from Australia. All three fighters failed to make good in bouts in that country. Pelkey is suffering from an attack of rheumatism. They were taken over to Australia by Tommy Burns.

"Smoky" Joe.

YES, Prunella, "Smoky" Joseph has recovered from his spell of the dread Appendicitis. And he's feeling very well. Since he had the Vermiform appendix taken from his frame, we opine that "Smoky" Joe will never lose another game. No appendix in his system. Has the valiant "Smoky" Joe? That is why the Browns missed 'em. Be they high or be they low. Better have the Smoke Inspector take a look at the Smoke. For the better. When they whiff it, ignominiously Croak.

Anybody want to buy a perfectly good Palm Beach suit?

And Don't Forget Plank.

JOE WOOD is a knotty problem with a heart of oak.

The Browns were barking up the wrong tree.

Never holler till you're out of the woods.

Especially when the battery is Joe Wood and Forest Cady.

Wood had the Browns swinging till they had a pain in the lumbar region.

The bat will never land on the pellet that has passed.

The only chance is to meet 'em half way.

CLYDE WARES is the only short-stop in captivity who backs up his own throws. After a wide chuck to Leary, Clyde hustled over and retrieved the ball holding the runner on first. Can you beat it?

"Red" McAuliffe is a willing worker. He speaks 14 different languages and will answer all proper questions. He also has his photographs for sale.

It wouldn't be bit surprising to hear "Red" announce "Abraham Lincoln battling for George Washington" or "Teddy Roosevelt now pitching for the Browns".

"Red" has his system chuck full of names and he gets 'em out even though they have no connection with the matter in hand.

Clarence Walker has discontinued his series of three-base blows until further notice.

The rumor that each member of the Federal League pennant winner would be presented with an automobile probably grew out of the report that the individual members of the successful team would receive a Ford.

A match was practically arranged last night between Al Kubiak, the heavyweight of Michigan, and Battling Levinsky of New York. If they sign up they will battle for 10 rounds at New York on the night of June 28. Levinsky has already accepted terms.

Leary Makes a Noise Like an Understudy for Agnew Miller Good at First

Manager Rickey of the Browns Seems to Have Solved the Problem of Bolstering His Catching Department Without Weakening His Infield.

By Clarence F. Lloyd.

CATCHER JACK LEARY it is to be from now on, instead of First Baseman Jack Leary. That's provided Jawn of Waltham, Mass., performs behind the bat as well as Manager Rickey believes he will. The transformation of the young Hibernian from an infielder to a maskman has been going on secretly for a month.

In Monday's game Leary made a noise as if he is going to serve as Sam Agnew's understudy.

Regular patrons at sportsman's Park have been somewhat surprised that Manager Rickey has seen fit to shift Leary from the infield to the catcher's position, when he has Catchers Crossin, Jenkins and Rummel wearing out the boards on the Browns' bench.

This is the answer: The Browns have the greatest staff of young throwing catchers in the business in MORNING PRACTICE.

Crossin, Jenkins and Rummel are backstops of promise. But in the opportunities afforded them during Agnew's absence from the game, they have not delivered. Manager Rickey has not lost faith in them and their chances will come later. But Rickey is also looking to his future and sees a chance of strengthening his catching staff.

Miller is the Goods.

This chance is afforded by Eddie Miller, an infielder. With Rickey on the job, some queer combinations are worked out. Mention Miller's name to Rickey and he'll give you a smile.

He looks upon the young collegian as one of the prize packages of his lot. Rickey never tires of telling of the numerous assets of this young fellow.

Right now Eddie is playing the Browns' first cushion and is expected to continue there. He hasn't made many hits since his debut but that hasn't bothered Rickey. The manager explains that Miller is almost certain to come through with a little more experience. Only in the last week has he had any batting practice outside of that afforded all the rookies in the morning practice. He hit like a fiend in the New England League a year ago and Rickey thinks he'll hit up here.

Good for Anybody's Club?

In sizing up a player, Rickey asks himself: "Can this fellow play on a world's championship team?" If Rickey's answer is "yes," then the player sticks. If not, he's slated for the bench or the minors. When Rickey turned over Miller and inquired of himself as to Miller's qualifications as a world's series player, his answer was: "Yes, this fellow can play first base on any man's team."

That's some boost, and from now on, Miller is slated for more than the "once over" by the fans.

That Miller hasn't shown earlier this season was due to the fact that he hurt his arm during the training camp period. The kinks have worked out. For that reason his assignment to first has enabled Rickey to uncover the man he believes will be Agnew's understudy.

Speaking of first basemen recalls the fact that Harold Janvrin, who is doing quite a good job at this specialty, is the Red Sox, would have been a Brownie but for the fact that he slipped into a hitting slump just at the time last season when it was on the cards for him to transfer his address to St. Louis.

On one of the appearances here with the Red Sox, Janvrin hit a home run over Shon's head. This caused Owner Hedges to remark that he'd like to

Joe Wood Is an Active Fielder, Making Five Putouts at First Base

JOE WOOD not only pitched a sensational game, but put up a rattling fielding performance as well. Among other things, he made five putouts at first base, proving that pitchers may do other things than pitch. On a ground-out to Wares in the eighth inning, Wood sprinted to first as if the outcome of the game depended on that drive. On four different occasions, batters hit grounders to first. Wood was at the bag to take the ball for the putout. Another time, Pratt hit a bouncer to Wood, who fielded it perfectly and then ran to first base ahead of the Brownie. Wood made three putouts at Pratt's expense.

have the youngster. This remark was carried to the Boston management and it offered Janvrin to the Browns. Before the deal was closed, however, Janvrin went into a slump and the exchange of players was called off. Janvrin is quite a ballplayer. His value is in the fact that he can be dropped at any position on the infield and perform as well almost as the regular man for the job.

Open Track Meet Is Scheduled by C. A. C. Members

An open handicap athletic meet has been scheduled for July 12 by the Columbia Athletic Club at its quarters, Thirteenth and Utah streets. This is the third of a series of meets under the auspices of the C. A. C. members and is proof that the athletic sport is on the boom on the South Side.

The events include, 50, 100, 220 and 440 yard dashes and mile and two mile runs, high jump, 15-pound shot, 35-pound weight, 50-yard high hurdle and tug of war. Prizes will be awarded to the first two athletes finishing in each event. Entry blanks are ready and may be obtained from the club secretary, Thirteenth and Utah streets.

The Columbia Athletic Club Athletic Committee has decided to send a team of 10 men to the Western A. A. U. track and field championship meet at Kansas City, June 27. The club has visions of winning the meet.

The lone obstacle in the way of a C. A. C. victory is Lee Talbott, the Kansas City A. C.'s weight man. Talbott is unquestionably the best weight lifter in this section of the country. For that reason the K. C. A. C. is assured of 20 points through his efforts in the shot-put, hammer throw, discus throw and 56-pound weight throw.

The C. A. C. has no athlete to overthrow Talbott, but is conceded a chance for the W. A. A. U. title if the other members perform up to their standard.

COMISKEY ADMITS CHASE HAS GIVEN HIM NOTICE

CHICAGO, June 16.—Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago American League, admitted today that Hal Chase had notified him he would leave the White Sox in 10 days. The first baseman in an interview with the club president, yesterday, declared his intention of quitting, but according to Comiskey, he did not say he would join the Buffalo Federals, as reported. Comiskey gained the latest Chase was going into business, he said.

Chase himself refused to make any further statement. From Federal League headquarters came the information that he was practically sure to be with the Buffalo team within a fortnight.

If the Buffeds get Chase, why not the Astor to St. Louis? This Astor looks like the best first sacker in the outlaw league, aside from Chase. Indeed, it's a mystery why a club with such a player would go after Chase.

INCOME TAX SOUND, SAYS HULL, DESPITE ITS LOW REVENUE

Author of Act Predicts Satisfactory Yield of Receipts in the Future.

$23,000,000 SHORTAGE

Returns Show Only $21,000,000 of the Estimated $54,000,000 Has Been Produced.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Representative Hull of Tennessee, author of the income tax act, in a statement today, declared that after careful observation of the operation of the income tax law, he feels "no reasonable doubt as to its successful administration and satisfactory yield of revenue in the future."

This belief was expressed despite recent estimates by Secretary McAdoo, which showed that the income tax, according to returns to date, had produced $23,000,000 less than the Treasury Department's estimate of $54,000,000 revenue from that source for the first 10 months of the operation.

"Unfair to Pass Judgment Now," in his statement Representative Hull, after referring to the successful administration of the income tax law, said:

"It would be both harsh and unfair to pronounce permanent judgment on the law at present. To place any comprehensive tax law upon a satisfactory administrative basis and to secure its normal yield of revenue, requires one or two years. The law in its operation has only applied 'tous far' to fractional parts of the year 1913.

"Many thousands of taxable persons, both here and temporarily abroad, have not yet made returns. On account of the brief time allowed in which to get familiar with the laws and the regulations an immense portion of the returns that were made are inaccurate. The method of withholding the tax at the source of the income and paying to the Government, under which the revenues of England were doubled the first year of its operation, did not apply to the year 1913.

No Bond Issue Contemplated.

"While the law apparently applied to all taxable incomes for the first 10 months of 1913, the facts are that it only applied for four months of this period with respect to all semi-annual income payable in January and July. This embraces all such semi-annual rent, interest, salaries, etc., as to the normal tax, and in addition to these classes of income dividends were embraced as to the additional or graduated tax rates. The law likewise applied to only seven months of the year 1913 with respect to all quarterly incomes payable in January, April, July and October."

"There is no necessity for a bond issue and the matter has not been considered," Secretary McAdoo replied when asked concerning rumors that a bond issue was under contemplation.

Since the announcement that the amount realized from the income tax and other sources of revenue would fall short of original estimates, there have been persistent rumors of probable bond issues.

CHICAGO SOOT SPOILS WHITE SUIT CRUSADE

Men Don Linen or Flannel Clothes and Blackened Coal Dust Descends.

CHICAGO, June 16.—Chicago was dazed by the invasion of the "white clothes for men" crusade. That was in the morning when the suburban trains and street cars began to disgorge their loads into the city. What Chicago and its soot-laden atmosphere had to the crusaders before they went home at night is another story.

The crusade was planned among the occupants of some of the downtown office buildings during the hot spell last week. The weather was much cooler today, but the response was very numerous. The crusaders shivered in suits of white linen or flannel, white shirts, white pants, hats, white ties and white canvas shoes. The effect was startling, at least until the soot got in his work and then all colors looked alike.

LIVES LOST WHEN RAIN TEARS HOLES IN PARIS STREETS

Ten Persons Believed to Have Been Buried in Cave-Ins or Washed Away.

PARIS, June 16.—Parts of Paris presented scenes of devastation today with falling holes in some of the main thoroughfares as the result of yesterday's terrific storm. The entire city was deprived of water, gas and electricity, cut off as a precautionary measure against floods, explosions and fires.

Several lives are known to have been lost through vehicles falling into cavities in the earth, but the exact number of dead was not known this morning, as some bodies were believed to have disappeared into the sewers. Heavy rains today added to the difficulties of the firemen searching for bodies.

Strict precautions were taken to prevent the public approaching spots where there was danger of further subsidence. Many streets were barred to wheeled traffic entirely, while the police kept back pedestrians to a safe distance.

A street collapsed early today in the northern district of Montmartre, behind the great cemetery, far from the other cave-ins. People in the vicinity scurried away as the ground began to sink. All managed to escape.

When communication with the suburbs had been partially restored today it

Rain ceased later in the day, but the weather continued threatening.

The entertainment is under the management of William and Margaret Frott of 5719 North Market street, who directed Saturday night's successful performance, and who now take occasion to thank Mrs. Margaret Laughlin for kindly donating the use of her lawn for both entertainments. STABS GUARDSMAN WHO TALKS TO WIFE

Alex P. Orr Says He Cut Joseph Grillo After Being Struck With Umbrella.

Joseph Grillo, 24 years old, a Sergeant in the First Regiment of the National Guard, living at 1532 Bacon street, was stabbed in the left cheek and on the left side by Alex P. Orr, 31 years old, a clerk in the Quartermaster's Department, at Sarah street and Maryland avenue, about 10:30 p. m. Monday, while Grillo was conversing with Orr's wife, Mrs. Catherine Orr, a domestic employed at 4143 Maryland avenue.

Orr and his wife had been separated and were arranging a reconciliation. Mrs. Orr visited her husband at his home, 344 Washington avenue, and while they were talking over their plans to resume housekeeping quarreled. Mrs. Orr left abruptly.

Orr followed. When he overtook her she was chatting with Grillo, whom she had met, she said, by chance. Orr told the police that Grillo felled him with an umbrella and that he drew a pocket knife in self-defense. He and Grillo were former messmates in the army, he said. He was held on a charge of assault with intent to kill. Grillo was taken to the city hospital.

INJUNCTION FIGHT AGAINST CHURCH FAILS

New Cupples Memorial Methodist Will Be Erected in University City.

The new Cupples Memorial Methodist Church will be built at Washington boulevard and Trinity avenue, University City, following the failure of six property owners of the neighborhood to obtain an injunction to enforce restrictions against the proposed work. The plaintiffs will have to bear the costs of the unsuccessful action.

The plaintiffs were Wilson H. Rowley, Mrs. Adele M. Karst, Mrs. Susan P. Butts, Mrs. Antoinette G. Weidlich, Mrs. Ellen M. Kehler and Mrs. Theresa Schall.

One of their legal arguments against the church was that it would not, as required by the restrictions, resemble the Woman's Magazine and Woman's National Daily buildings in architecture. The church contended that the purpose of the trustees was known at the time the lot was purchased, and that the terms of purchase provided for a church building on the site.

E. SACKVILLE-WEST, AMBASSADOR'S SON ENDS LIFE IN PARIS

PARIS, June 16.—News of the tragic death of Ernest Henry Sackville-West, immediately following the death of his wife from cancer, was made public here today. The police report that he shot himself June 4, immediately after his wife, a French woman, had died of cancer. Both were buried on June 5.

A few years ago Ernest Sackville-West brought suit in London to establish his claim to the estates of the late Lord Lionel Sackville-West, formerly British Minister to Spain and to the United States, who married a Spanish dancer, named Josefa Duran in Madrid. The children of this union were never recognized by the courts, as Lord Lionel had reason to believe that the dancer had a husband living when he married her.

In his suit Ernest Sackville-West claimed to be the eldest legitimate son of Lord Lionel and sought to obtain for himself and his three sisters a portion of the estate. His claim was disallowed by the courts in 1903 and in 1910, whereupon the petitioner withdrew his suit.

Then he went to Monte Carlo, where his wife conducted a lodging house until she developed cancer. West, who was passionately devoted to her, insisted, though he was poor, on removing to Paris to get the best treatment. They had lived there three years.

His wife died on the morning of June 4, and West, after gazing at the body some minutes, went into an adjoining room and shot himself. He possessed only $2.

TO THE PUBLIC:

THE State of New York, through its Department of Insurance, has completed the examination of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company which it is required by law to make every three years. The Chief Examiner, in concluding the report, said:

"The treatment by this Company of its policy-holders in the prompt payment of their claims, in the voluntary payment of millions of dollars in bonuses, and in its social welfare work—are features of the Company's business which deserve commendation."

The Superintendent of Insurance, the Hon. William Temple Emmet, in approving the report, wrote an extended review from which we make extracts:

THE COMPANY'S GROWTH AND MANAGEMENT.

"The administrative officers of the Company * * * have so increased the assets of the Company as to make these equal the resources of many states and even nations. They have at the same time steadily cheapened the cost of insurance to policy-holders, both by direct means and by the distribution of bonuses."

[The report shows that the Company has given back $35,367,293 in bonuses to industrial policy-holders in nineteen years.]

"They have extended the Company's business to such an extent as to bring it into contact now with approximately one-eighth of the population of the United States."

[The number of policies outstanding December 31, 1913, was 13,957,748.]

"That this notable growth has involved no sacrifice of efficiency in the handling of administrative details, but, on the contrary, has been the direct result of constantly increasing efficiency, is shown by the comparatively small losses sustained by the Company in proportion to the large investments made."

ITS POLICY-HOLDERS SATISFIED.

"The fact that the percentage of lapses due to the abandonment of their insurance by policy-holders is constantly decreasing, speaks eloquently to the same effect."

[The lapse ratio of industrial policies has decreased 31.7 per cent in eight years.]

"This last mentioned development is perhaps the most convincing evidence which could be offered that the Company's policy-holders are, broadly speaking, very well satisfied indeed with what they get in return for the premiums they pay. A very remarkable showing altogether."

ITS SOCIAL SERVICE.

"This Company waited for no changes in existing law before striking out as a pioneer among insurance companies along the pathway of social service on a huge scale."

"For years it has maintained for its policy-holders a nursing service upon a great scale; this has latterly become a veritable marvel of efficiency and practical helpfulness."

[Metropolitan nurses made 1,127,022 visits to sick policy-holders in 1913, for which the Company paid the bills.]

"Leaving out of consideration the mere numbers of those who have been directly benefited by these activities, I think that the example which the Metropolitan has set to other great business organizations by its early recognition of the new responsibilities attaching to all business enterprises which have attained a certain size, is one of the most beneficial of recent occurrences in the field of American business. For years it has through its publications upon the question of health conservation been serving multitudes of people as a sort of University of beneficial instruction upon this most important subject."

ABREAST OF MODERN THOUGHT.

"This great institution, having so very recently been under our critical scrutiny and presenting so many admirable illustrations of what an efficient and enlightened modern business organization on a large scale can do in the way of keeping abreast of modern thought, seems to be in a position where I may properly use it as an illustration * * * that private initiative and enterprise are at their best still capable of doing the finest possible work in fields from which, latterly, all the talk has been that these agencies should be compelled to retire."

The Backslider.

A Story of a Justifiable Mutiny at Sea.

By Gifford Hall.

WHEN the San Francisco crimp, shanghaied the Rev. John Williams, otherwise "Parson Jack" of a certain seaman's boarding house runner him- self, "Parson Jack" had long been a thorn in the side of the crimps. He knew the crimps thoroughly, and he combated them with all his energies.

He was a hard and dangerous man, a shanghai, but they got him aboard the big "lime-julier" Duncan McLean, with a sailor's crew. He was a hard and dangerous man, a shanghai, but they got him aboard the big "lime-julier" Duncan McLean, with a sailor's crew.

The Rats and the Cheese

By Mrs. F. A. Walker.

OLD MR. RAT lived in a barn but he was very fond of good things to eat, so he often wandered into the farmhouse at night just to get a dainty morsel.

One night he discovered a whole cheese, and it was a very big cheese, so Mr. Rat felt that he would not need anything else all winter in the way of dainties.

Automobiles Are a Century Old

THE first application of steam power for propelling carriages was made by Oliver Evans, who died in New York 85 years ago. Evans was a religious fanatic, and in his youth was a wheelwright's apprentice. About 1800 he attempted to build a horseless carriage, but the result, which was an ordinary carriage with a steam engine to supply the motive power, was abandoned.

"Speed and Control"

GOING after success in life is very much like trying to pitch a shut-out game of baseball. Speed in delivering the ball is a factor—but control is a greater factor. Bullet velocity is of very little value if the ball doesn't speed true. When the umpire begins walking the batter on balls it's time to think about getting the ball nearer the groove.

The Jarr Family

By ROY L. MCCARDELL

Harold Dogstory Eats Supper With the Jarrs.

"I CAN'T see how doing the press work for an inanimate feature film production appeals to you," said Mr. Jarr. "Especially after the glitter, the tinsel, the gaiety of girls and the glamour of furnishing fame for such a musical show as 'The Girl From the Cheese Factory'?"

Mr. Dogstory, the press agent, calling to the Jarr menage, was straining his ears to see if he could catch the far off glimmer of crockery that betokened dinner preparations. He roused himself and said in an inquiring tone, "I beg pardon?" And Mr. Jarr repeated his question.

"Why, it's got many advantages," Mr. Dogstory answered. "First, the feature film will have no male or female stars to fight each other, or any important female personage in the cast, who has a friend financially interested. And then, as said, a film has no artistic temperament, and, better still, no mother."

"Of course, a moving picture has no mother!" remarked Mrs. Jarr, who had been listening quietly to the conversation. "No, Willie, sir, Dogstory does not wish to hear you recite the piece you are to speak at the closing exercises at school!"

This last remark was directed to Master Jarr, who had entered quietly and had gained the center of the room and was now betraying preliminary symptoms of infantile elocution.

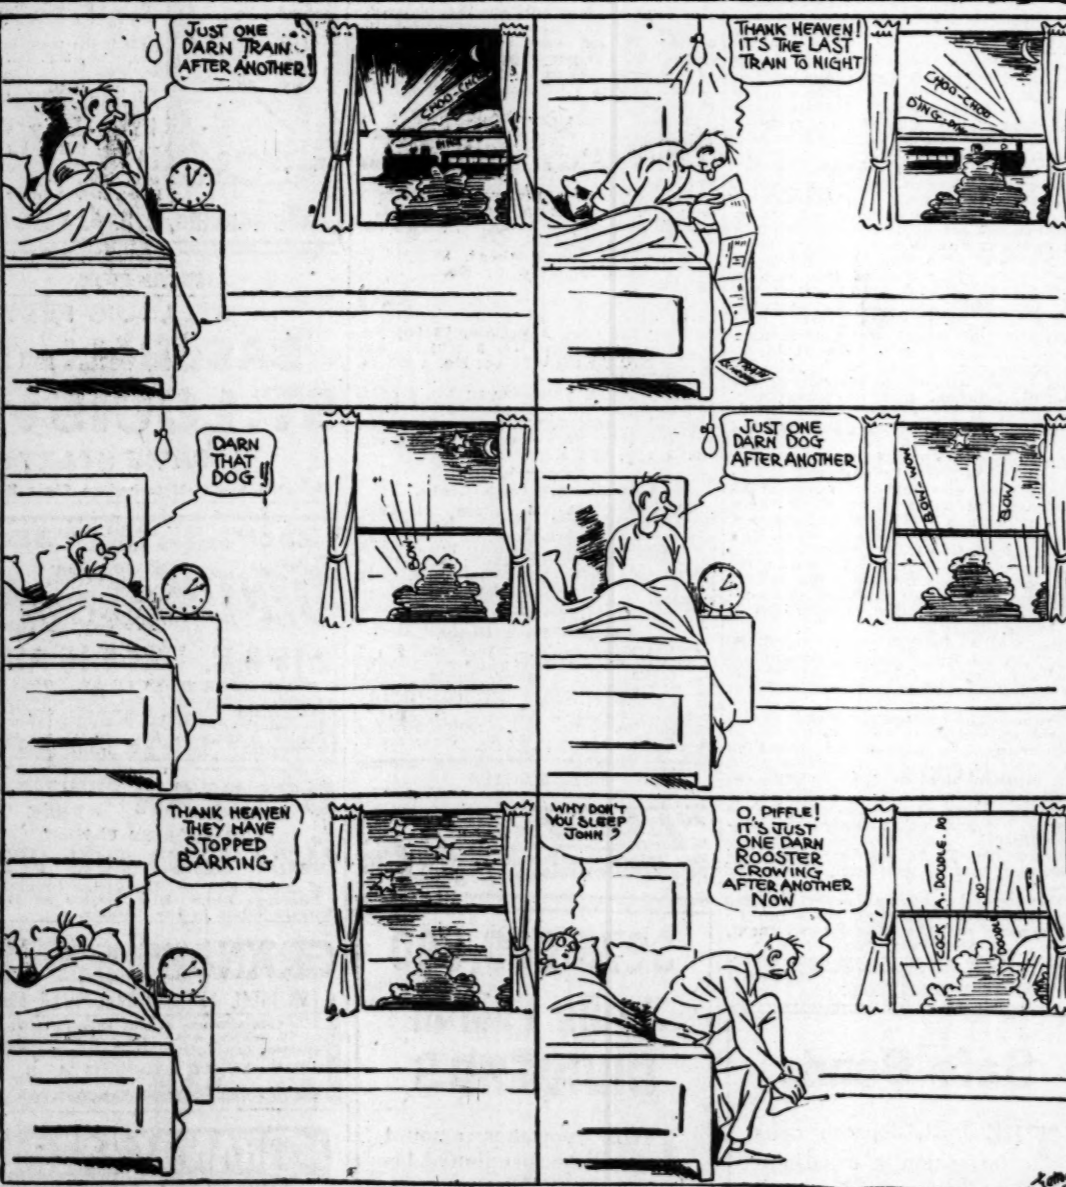

"And a moving picture never puts up with about its dressing room or has hysterics over the billing or how his name is in the electric sign outside, but principally moving pictures appeal to me, after many years augmenting the object of actresses in more or less legitimate productions, because the film has no mother!"

"My Spear Knows No Brother!" roared Mr. Jarr. "But what is a film without a mother?"

"Ask me!" replied Mr. Dogstory. "If you had worked at the present time as long as I have, backed by nothing but your fur-trimmed overcoat, your trusty typewriter, your rubber stamp, your silk hat and your high degree fraternal pin and been to be up against the stars' mother--if it was a lady star, or the stars' mothers' addition, if it was a film star--then you would have known what it is to suffer! Then you would be prepared to approach marriage with an endless editor of celluloid whom the dramatic editor would have any hope of even taking away his wife or selling a play to you, you would say with me, 'Well, I'd put out stories for a while, moving picture masterpiece is no job, but, thank goodness, the film has no mother!'" er!" said Mr. Jarr. "But elucidate." "No, Emma, Mr. Dogstory doesn't want to hear you play on the piano now!" admonished Mrs. Jarr, as the little Jarr girl sidled in and began to climb up the piano stool. "Mr. Dogstory will hear you after supper."

At these words Mr. Dogstory's heart gave a great leap for joy, and as he afterward admitted, as he hadn't eaten for some time, his heart was worked a little last he had not been on the starting line.

"Oh, I hope I'm not interrupting your dinner!" cried the visiting press agent. This was a true hope. Mr. Dogstory was worked a little last he had not been on the starting line.

"Oh, no!" said Mrs. Jarr hospitably. "Dinner is just ready. You won't mind that it is just a picked-up dinner? This was the maid's afternoon out, you know."

"Oh, yes; you're to stay to dinner," cried Master Willie playfully. "I'm not to recite when people are to stay to dinner!"

"W-I-I-I-I-I!" cried his mother. "But Mr. Dogstory, who was tact itself, affected not to hear the boy."

"And you are to play for me, after dinner, little darling?" murmured Mr. Dogstory. In affected abstraction to little Miss Emma Jarr.

"Yeth thir, only I generally play when we have company what mamma don't want before dinner!"

"Don't mind the child, children say such curious things!" said Mrs. Jarr, smiling sweetly, though her thoughts were inclined to infanticide.

"Oh, certainly! They are such delightfully irresponsible little angels!" quashed Mr. Dogstory, as he escorted Mrs. Jarr towards the dining room. And his heart sang in rejoicing that while the film had no mother, the Jarr children had, and that theatrical passes in the past meant a meal tick in the present.

Pa's Diary

By HAZEN CONKLIN.

Charley Higgins Comes and Pa Scores on Ma.

CHARLEY HIGGINS came to town today. He came some days later than I'd planned to have him because there was a big raft of orders to ship from the works to our northeast territory, where my scheme of givin' away a free cake of soap out of every dozen has plumb emptied my Dobbinsville storehouse, and our warehouse here to boot. And Charley he had to stay and straighten the mess out and get the feller who's to take his place broke into harness more complete. I thought it was goin' to be hard work explainin' to him why Clap and Ma had changed so toward him and why it was that instead of bein' Charley's favored suitor like he was when we all lived up in Dobbinsville, he wasn't even a door mat for Clarice now--her sudden revivin' of interest in him when the war scare was on to the contrary, and she thought he was goin' off to die at the head of the regiment, or whatever a second lieutenant leads off to war--but it was as easy as shuckin' corn.

"You don't need to do no explainin' Mr. Dobbins," he says. "I had it all doped out long ago. Shucks, I wouldn't dast to marry Charley! She's got too high notions for me. I'd be livin' with my head up in the clouds and my feet down cellar if I was married to her. Besides, I ain't no notion of gettin' married to any gal until I make a whole lot of money."

Well, I was mighty glad he took it that way. I dunno as I'd want Clarice myself. Of course, I've got her as a daughter. I don't mean that, I mean as a wife--if I was a young squirt like Charley, just startin' out. I got Ma before she went spilt, so I didn't have to put up with highfalutin' notions whilst I was gettin' my start.

When I was eatin' supper--somehow I can't learn to call it dinner--Ma says, "I'm glad, Dan'l, you didn't fetch young Higgins home with you out of a mistaken sense of hospitality. Dobbinsville and all its relics are very well here in this house."

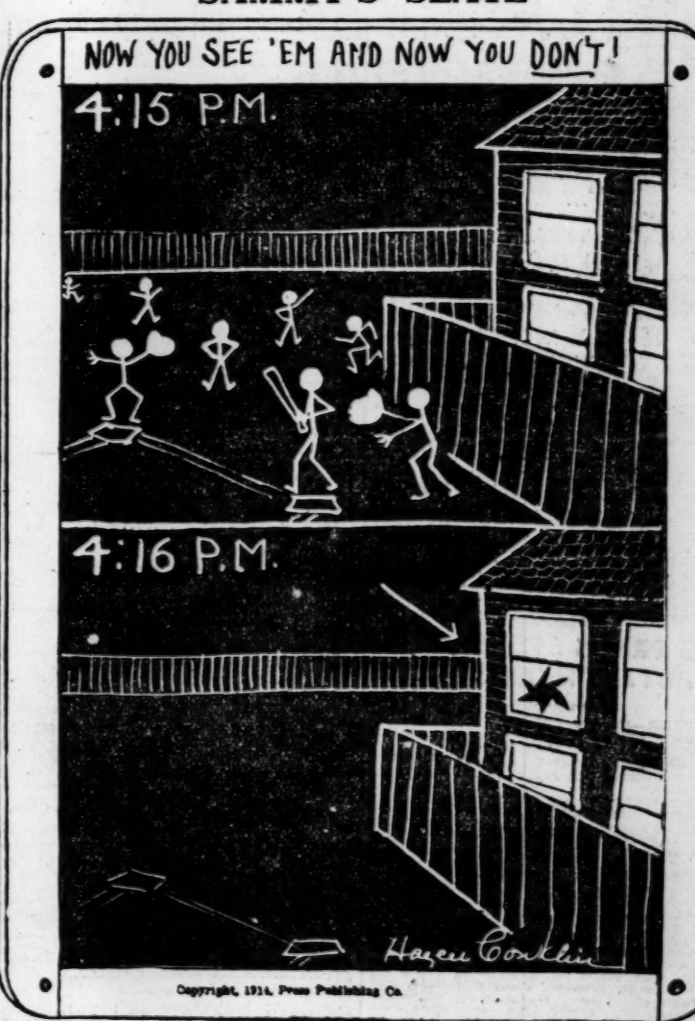

"Ain't you a relic of Dobbinsville?" I says. "Seems to me you was borned there, and so was Clarice, and so was I. We're nobles! but Dobbinsville relics spruced up with a fresh coat of city paint."

Ma she swallowed and says: "You know very well, Dan'l, what I have reference to. I mean the absurd, childish affair that was once supposed to exist between that washerwoman's son and our Clarice."

"Oh, Charley and Clarice?" I says. "Well, don't you fret none. Charley told me himself right today that he wouldn't take her if he could have her. He says he wants no foolish-notioned gal like her for his. And he didn't mince matters none neither."

Well, it was a caution the way Ma swallowed her double chin then. They acted like they was doin' a mached-up and down her neck with no place to go to git away.

SAMMY'S SLATE

"The impudence!" she says; "the upstart! Dan'l, you'll discharge him tomorrow. Why--why--why?"--and she was so mad she nearly choked. But Clarice didn't say nothin', only she looked kind of struck. I guess maybe the idea that Charley had backslid in his crush on her didn't set as well on her mind as her attitude toward him did. I reckon a gal reserves the right to give the mitten to a feller but don't want to give him the right to stop thinkin' a heap of her. Girls is funny things, and the only things that's funnier is wives. I've got one of each and I ought to know by this time.

The New Cook.
"I HEAR that you have a college graduate for a cook. Isn't that rather expensive?"
"Not very. She works for her board and clothes."
"Why, how does she come to do that?"
"She's my wife."

Bawled Out.
"HOW harse you are this mornin'!"
"Yes; my husband got home very late last night."
